RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

EXEMPTIONS FOR CERTAIN INVESTMENT ADVISERS AND PRINCIPAL UNDERWRITERS OF INVESTMENT COMPANIES

The Commission today adopted two rules under the Investment Company Act of 1940, regarding services rendered to an investment company by certain persons without a written contract or pursuant to an assigned contract. The Act effectively requires that the investment advisory contract or principal underwriting contract with an investment company must, by its terms, terminate upon its assignment. Rule 2a-6 deems not to be an assignment for purposes of that provision a transaction which does not result in a change of actual control or management of an investment adviser or principal underwriter. The Act also provides that a person may not act under an investment advisory contract unless it has been approved by the holders of a majority of the investment company's voting securities. Rule 15a-4 permits, subject to certain restrictions, a person to act temporarily as an investment adviser to an investment company, without the prior approval of the investment company's shareholders. These rules take effect immediately. (Rel. IC-11005)

ACCOUNTANT LIABILITY FOR REPORTS ON UNAUDITED INTERIM FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The Commission announced the publication of a release adopting a rule which provides that a report prepared or certified by an accountant within the meaning of Sections 7 and 11 of the Securities Act of 1933 shall not include a report by an independent accountant on a review of unaudited interim financial information (SAS No. 24 report). The rule, which was effective December 28, 1979, will have the effect of excluding accountants from potential liability under Section 11(a) of the Securities Act for SAS No. 24 reports included in Securities Act filings. CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION, TEMPORARY TRUSTEE APPOINTED IN BOOKKEEPERS CASE

The Los Angeles Regional Office announced that on December 20, 1979, the Honorable Leland C. Nielsen, U.S. District Judge for the Southern District of California in San Diego, issued a preliminary injunction against Bookkeepers, Ltd., located in Ontario, California, Joseph Margala of Upland, California and Jerry Whitley of Whittier, California. Judge Nielsen also named Mr. R. N. Gould as temporary trustee of Bookkeepers. The court's action came on a motion by the Commission in SEC v. Bookkeepers, Ltd., et al., an action filed by the Commission in March 1978.

The preliminary injunction bars Bookkeepers, Margala and Whitley, president and vice president of Bookkeepers respectively, from violating the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws by engaging in a fraudulent scheme to deprive the public shareholders of Bookkeepers of their stock in the company by, among other things, a series of reverse stock splits. As a result of defendants' conduct, the number of shareholders was reduced from over a thousand to approximately 29 and the defendants increased their ownership of the company. The court also found that the defendants violated Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by failing to register the securities of Bookkeepers with the Commission as required by law.

Mr. R. N. Gould, appointed temporary trustee, was directed to take possession of the assets, property and records of Bookkeepers and to hold and manage them until final judgment in this case.

In a related matter, a federal grand jury sitting in San Diego handed down an indictment on December 13, 1979 against Wencke, Margala and Whitley charging each of them with 12 counts of mail fraud and three counts of securities law violations in connection with their conduct similar to that alleged in the Commission's complaint. (SEC v. Bookkeepers, Ltd., et al., S.D. CA CV-79-1715-N). (LR-8965)

FIELD PLANNING CORPORATION AND CONRAD FRANK ENJOINED

The Atlanta Regional Office and the Miami Branch Office announced that on December 20, 1979, the Honorable Ben Krentzman, U.S. District Judge, Middle District of Florida, Tampa Division, entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction against Field Planning Corporation and Conrad Frank, pursuant to a Consent and Undertaking by said defendants, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint. The Undertaking included a reporting provision concerning the defendants' activities in connection with the offer and sale of tax shelter investment programs, and the disclosure of the Commission's complaint, its allegations, and disposition to prospective investors. (SEC v. National Film Productions, Inc., et al., M.D. Fla., 79-1060-T-WC). (LR-8967)

REQUEST FOR CONFIDENTIAL TREATMENT OF RECORDS OBTAINED BY THE COMMISSION

The Commission published for comment proposed rules relating to requests for confidential treatment of records obtained by the Commission. The Commission proposes to adopt a new Section 200.83, which will implement a procedure that will allow persons to request confidential treatment of information supplied to the Commission to the fullest extent permitted by the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552, and other relevant statutes.

Where a request for confidential information has been made, the Commission will, to the extent practicable, follow the general approach outlined in proposed Rule 200.83 until final rules are promulgated. Pending final promulgation, however, the Commission will not rely on the provisions of the proposed rule that would establish new, affirmative requirements for persons requesting that the Commission not release information concerning themselves. Interested persons should submit their comments in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before March 5, 1980 and should refer to File No. 4-229. (Rel. 33-6172)

COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

COMMISSIONER KARMEL SPEAKS IN JAPAN

Commissioner Roberta S. Karmel, accompanied by Edward F. Greene, Director of the Division of Corporation Finance, visited Japan during December 1979. The Commissioner addressed a Special Meeting of Japanese Business Leaders sponsored by Keidanren in Tokyo, Japan on December 17, 1979. A copy of her remarks entitled "Recent Developments Concerning Foreign Issuer Disclosure" is being released today. The Commissioner also made informal presentations concerning current developments with regard to the national market system at the Security Dealers Association, the Tokyo Stock Exchange and the Osaka Stock Exchange.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

ROYAL W. CARSON SUSPENDED FOR FOUR MONTHS

Administrative Law Judge Edward B. Wagner has filed an initial decision suspending Royal W. Carson, Jr. of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, from association with a broker or dealer for four months. Carson was found to have wilfully violated Section 15(b)(6) of the Exchange Act by continuing to supervise the activities of his firm, Royal W. Carson & Co., Inc., during the period of an earlier personal suspension to which he had agreed. In connection with determining an appropriate sanction, it was noted that Carson had been evasive in connection with an NASD inquiry and had sought to mislead a Commission examiner about his activity during his suspension. The decision is subject to Commission review on petition of a party or on the Commission's own initiative.

EDWARD J. BLUMENFELD BARRED

The Commission has barred Edward J. Blumenfeld, of Memphis, Tennessee, from association with any broker or dealer. The Commission found that, in 1975, while a salesman for a municipal bond dealer, Blumenfeld made fraudulent recommendations and statements to customers and charged customers unfair prices. The Commission also found that, in 1973, Blumenfeld had previously been enjoined from engaging in similar misconduct in a Commission action based on his activities while employed by another municipal bond dealer. (Rel. 34-16437)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

AMCOLE ENERGY CORPORATION ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on January 2 the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia enjoined Amcole Energy Corporation of Dallas, Texas, from failing to timely file periodic reports with the Commission and ordered it to comply with certain undertakings. The Commission's complaint, filed on November 29, 1979, alleged that Amcole failed to timely file certain annual and quarterly reports as part of a continuing course of conduct extending over several years. Amcole, in consenting to entry of judgment against it, admitted failure to file reports on a timely basis on 12 separate occasions. (SEC v. Amcole Energy Corporation, U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil Action No. 79-3227). (LR-8968)

PERMANENT INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST FIVE STAR COAL COMPANY, INC.

The Commission announced that on December 31, 1979 the Honorable Robert M. Duncan, a Federal District Judge in Columbus, Ohio, entered a Final Order of Permanent Injunction against Five Star Coal Company, Inc. of Gallipolis, Ohio. The order enjoins Five Star from future violations of the antifraud and registration provisions of the securities laws. In addition, the Court signed Stipulations between the Commission and three individual defendants, Edward H. Miller, Jr., a businessman from Fort Erie, Ontario; Benjamin G. Sprecher, a New York attorney; and Maurice S. Roth, also a New York attorney, which will have the effect of terminating the Commission's litigation with prejudice as to them. (SEC v. Five Star Coal Company, Inc., U.S.D.C. S.D. of Ohio, Civil Action No. C-2-77-832). (LR-8969)

NO-ACTION POSITION RE POOLED INCOME FUNDS MAINTAINED BY PUBLIC CHARITIES

The Commission has issued a release describing a no-action position which its Division of Investment Management has frequently and consistently taken with respect to pooled income funds maintained by public charities under Section 642(c)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code. The release states that, under certain specified circumstances, the Division would not recommend enforcement action if a public charity maintains a pooled income fund without registration under (1) the Investment Company Act of 1940 of the fund, the public charity, or a trustee of the fund, (2) the Securities Act of 1933 of interests in the fund, or (3) the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 of interests in the fund or of persons soliciting gifts by means of the fund. In addition, the release states that the staff will not respond to no-action requests relating to these funds unless they present novel facts or interpretative problems, such as departures from the circumstances specified in the release. ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

NATIONAL SECURITIES CORPORATION CENSURED, JAMES E. RYAN CITED

Public administrative proceedings have been instituted against National Securities Corporation, a Seattle, Washington broker-dealer registered with the Commission, and James E. Ryan, its vice-president. The proceedings are based on allegations by the staff that National and Ryan wilfully violated and aided and abetted violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, and antifraud and recordkeeping provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 applicable to registered broker-dealers, and that National failed reasonably to supervise Ryan with a view to preventing his violations.

In the proceeding against National, the Commission simultaneously accepted an offer of settlement from National in which, without admitting or denying the allegations against it, National consented to the Commission's order making findings in accordance with the allegations and imposing the remedial sanctions of a censure and a six-month's suspension of principal transactions in the types of securities involved, namely, mining securities trading on the Spokane Stock Exchange and over-the-counter at Spokane, Washington. In addition, as part of its offer, National made several undertakings to strengthen its supervision of trading by its salesmen. (Rel. 34-16380 and 34-16381)

(3) Consideration of whether to issue a release proposing to amend Form N-1 [17 CFR 239.15, 274.11] under the Securities Act of 1933 [15 U.S.C. 77a-77aa] and the Investment Company Act of 1940 [15 U.S.C. 80a-1-80a-52], and Rule 434d [17 CFR 230.434d] under the Securities Act. The amendments would require money market funds to include in their prospectuses a yield quotation and a description of the method by which yield is computed. The amendments would require that the yield computations be made according to a standardized method for use both in regular prospectuses and advertisements used pursuant to Rule 434d. The Commission will also consider the withdrawal of a prior proposal to standardize quotations of yield by money market funds. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT Anthony A. Vertuno at (202) 272-2107.

JOINT ACTION TAKEN AGAINST PETRO NATURAL RESOURCE CORPORATION AND EUGENE L. COLMAN

The New York Regional Office and the New York State Attorney General's Office jointly announced the filing of complaints in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York and the New York State Supreme Court, respectively, on December 26, 1979, against Petro Natural Resource Corporation, a Delaware corporation located in New York, New York, and Eugene L. Colman of New York, New York.

The Commission's action seeks to enjoin Petro and Colman from further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The Commission's complaint alleges that from in or about July 1979 to September 1979, the defendants offered and sold unregistered securities in the form of limited partnership interests in tax-sheltered oil and gas ventures by means of materially misleading statements and omissions to state material facts. The misleading statements and omissions concerned, among other things, the risks associated with the investment offered, Petro's prior experience and success in similar investments, and the sponsor and author of certain offering materials mailed to prospective investors.

The New York Attorney General's Office seeks to bar Petro and Colman from future public securities business within or from the state of New York. The Attorney General's complaint alleges that the defendants violated the registration and antifraud provisions of the New York State Blue Sky Law in connection with the offering of tax-sheltered limited partnership interests within New York State.

Simultaneously with the filing of the Attorney General's complaint, Petro and Colman consented to an injunction and a permanent bar from further securities transactions with the public within or from New York State. (SEC v. Petro Natural Resource Corporation and Eugene L. Colman, S.D.N.Y., 79 Civil 6977 [LFM]). (LR-8971)

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO ANNUAL REPORT FORM; INTEGRATION OF SECURITIES ACTS DISCLOSURE SYSTEMS

The Commission has authorized the publication of a release requesting comments on proposed amendments to the present annual report form required to be filed by most publicly owned companies, Form 10-K, on proposed additions and an amendment to Regulation S-K, on amendments to Rule 14a-3 and Rule 14c-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and on amendments to related forms, rules and guides under the Securities Act of 1933 and the Exchange Act. The proposed revisions are part of a series of proposals intended to reduce disclosure burdens and to facilitate the integration of the disclosure system under the two acts.

All communications should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before April 15, 1980 and should refer to File No. S7-816. All comments will be available for public inspection. (Rel. 33-6176)

Comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before April 15, 1980 and should refer to File S7-817. PROPOSED REVISIONS TO REGULATION S-X

The Commission has approved the issuance of a release soliciting comments on a proposed general revision of Articles 3 and 5 of Regulation S-X, and related amendments to Article 12 of Regulation S-X, Rules 14a-3 and 14c-3 of the proxy rules and the creation of a new Item 12 of Regulation S-K. The changes in S-X are proposed to (a) eliminate rules which duplicate generally accepted accounting principles; (b) effect changes to recognize current practice; (c) clarify and modify requirements; and (d) expand certain requirements to improve financial reporting. These proposed changes have been structured in a manner to facilitate the integration of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by attaining greater uniformity between financial statements included in annual reports to shareholders and those prepared in accordance with Regulation S-X. Comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before April 30, 1980, and should refer to File No. S7-818. PROPOSED RULES TO ESTABLISH CERTAIN UNIFORM INSTRUCTIONS AS TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Commission has published for comment proposed amendments to existing rules which, if adopted, would establish uniform instructions governing the periods to be covered by financial statements included in (1) most registration and reporting forms filed with the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and (2) annual reports to security holders furnished pursuant to the proxy rules. The proposed amendments would remove substantially all present instructions as to financial statements from the various registration and reporting forms and establish a centralized set of instructions in Regulation S-X. Also, the proposed amendments would allow most reporting companies filing registration statements under the Securities Act to present interim financial information in the same degree of detail as is presently required in a Form 10-Q under the Exchange Act. Comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before April 30, 1980, and should refer to File S7-819. All comments will be available for public inspection. (Rel. 33-6179)

OPPENHEIMER & CO., INC., OTHERS CITED

The Commission announced the institution of public administrative proceedings against Oppenheimer & Co., Inc., a registered broker-dealer with its principal offices in New York, New York, and six employees or former employees of Oppenheimer's Chicago, Illinois office. The six Oppenheimer employees are: Ronald L. Brownlow and Daniel J. Piet, former registered representatives at Oppenheimer; Warren K. Hayes, Robert Hunziker, and Charles W. Wright, registered representatives at Oppenheimer; and Thomas J. O'Donnell, manager of Oppenheimer's Chicago office.

The Order for Proceedings alleges that Oppenheimer and Brownlow, Piet, Hayes, Hunziker, and Wright wilfully violated and wilfully aided and abetted violations of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in connection with the offer and sale of exchange listed options. The Order further alleges that O'Donnell wilfully aided and abetted violations of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act. In addition, it is alleged that Oppenheimer and O'Donnell failed to reasonably supervise employees under their supervision and control.

The Commission simultaneously accepted offers of settlement submitted by Oppenheimer, Piet, Hayes, Wright, Hunziker, and O'Donnell wherein they consented to (1) findings of wilfull violations without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's Order, and (2) the sanctions set forth below.

The Commission's order accepting the settlements: (1) censures Oppenheimer and suspends all solicited option trading in Oppenheimer's Chicago office for twenty-five days as to accounts for which option account opening documents have not been submitted to Oppenheimer prior to the date of the Commission's order; (2) suspends Piet from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, investment company or affiliate thereof for a period of two months; (3) suspends Hunziker and Wright from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, investment company or affiliate thereof for a period of two and one-half months; (4) suspends Hayes from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, investment company or affiliate thereof for a period of four months; and (5) suspends O'Donnell from serving in any supervisory capacity in association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, investment company or affiliate thereof for a period of three months.

Additionally, in its Offer of Settlement, Oppenhimer states that it will make restitution in the amount of at least $175,000 to certain customers of Oppenheimer's Chicago office who had suffered losses in option trading. In its Offer of Settlement, Oppenheimer also states that it will revise its compliance manual to more fully discuss options, increase the training of its registered representatives, replace the senior registered options principal who held that position during the period of the alleged violative activity, and establish a Compliance Review Board and an Option Subcommittee, which would, among other things, oversee Oppenheimer's compliance policies and review customer complaints.

A hearing will be scheduled to determine whether the allegations against Brownlow and true and, if so, to decide what, if any, remedial action should be ordered by the Commission. (Rel. 34-16474)

ADOPTION OF RULE 242, FORM 242, AND RELATED AMENDMENTS TO RULE 144

The Commission announces the adoption of a small issue exemptive rule, Rule 242, under Section 3(b) of the Securities Act of 1933 which allows certain domestic and Canadian corporate issuers to offer and sell up to $2,000,000 per issue of their securities in any six-month period to an unlimited number of accredited persons (including certain institutional-type purchasers, purchasers of at least $100,000 of securities, and executive officers and directors of the issuer) and to 35 other persons, provided certain conditions relating to the manner of offering, the information provided to purchasers, and the filing of notices of sales are met. ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

NASD ACTION AGAINST PAUL F. KENDRICK AFFIRMED

The Commission has affirmed the NASD's imposition of censure, a $5,000 fine, and a bar from association with any NASD member on Paul F. Kendrick, of San Francisco. Kendrick was president of Paul Kendrick & Co., Inc., formerly an NASD member firm.

The Commission found, as had the NASD, that Kendrick was responsible for his firm's operation with net capital deficiencies, attempts to conceal those deficiencies, violations of reporting, recordkeeping, customer protection and credit extention provisions, and for the sale of stock in a public offering at a price below the offering price.

In affirming the sanctions imposed by the NASD, the Commission stressed the pattern of deliberate deception that Kendrick practiced on regulatory authorities. Kendrick engaged in repeated efforts to conceal his firm's net capital deficiencies. He "parked" securities in customers' accounts, failed to record a securities purchase on his firm's books, and filed a series of false reports with the NASD. In addition, he forged two affidavits from customers in whose accounts he had parked securities, and introduced those affidavits into evidence before the NASD. (Rel. 34-16475)

LINK-UP + 1 SECURITIES, INC. ENJOINED

The Denver Regional Office announced that on January 4 the Honorable Richard H. Matsch of the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction against Link-Up + 1 Securities, Inc., Jerome A. Bernstein, Lawrence Bernstein, Bernstein and Bernstein, Inc., and Jerome A. Bernstein and Lawrence Bernstein, doing business as Continental Concepts. The defendants consented to the entry of said Final Judgment without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint. The order enjoined the defendants from violating the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws and the registration, bookkeeping, and capital provisions of the securities laws applicable to broker-dealers in securities.

The Commission filed its complaint on May 17, 1979. The court granted a Temporary Restraining Order on May 18 and a Preliminary Injunction on May 25, 1979. The court also appointed the National Association of Securities Dealers as a receiver for Link-Up + 1 Securities, Inc. in both the Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction. Thereafter, on August 9, 1979, the court appointed a SIPC Trustee for Link-Up in the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado (79-M-1018). The SIPC Trusteeship is continuing under 79-M-1018. ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

DARREL L. NIELSEN SUSPENDED FROM PRACTICE BEFORE THE COMMISSION

The Commission has announced the permanent suspension of Darrel L. Nielsen, an accountant, from appearing or practicing before it, pursuant to Rule 2(e)(3) of the Commission's Rules of Practice. On September 5, 1979, the Commission entered an order of temporary suspension against Mr. Nielsen from appearing or practicing before it. No petition to lift the suspension was filed by Mr. Nielsen, and the suspension became permanent in accordance with the Commission's order of September 5, 1979, and Rule 2(e)(3)(ii) of the Commission Rules of Practice.

The Rule 2(e) proceeding was based on a permanent injunction entered against Mr. Nielsen in SEC v. Richard L. Chatham, et al. On June 7, 1979, the U.S. District Court for the District of Utah, following a trial on the merits, found that Mr. Nielsen had aided and abetted violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. Specifically, the court found that Mr. Nielsen had knowingly furthered, aided and abetted a conspiracy to defraud public investors by certifying financial statements that he knew were fraudulent. The court permanently enjoined Mr. Nielsen from further violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. Mr. Nielsen took no appeal from the court's order.

Commissioner Karmel dissented for the reasons set forth in her opinion accompanying the Order of Temporary Suspension. (Rel. 34-16479)

YASIN JAFFER CITED

The Commission announced the institution of public administrative proceedings pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against Yasin Jaffer (Jaffer), a registered broker-dealer located in Chicago, Illinois. The Order alleges that Jaffer willfully violated the antifraud provisions of the securities laws in that he made misrepresentations and omitted to state material facts to customers, converted customer funds, and forged checks; that he willfully violated the recordkeeping and reporting requirements of the Exchange Act; and that he failed to send confirmations of securities transactions to customers. A hearing will be scheduled to take evidence on the staff's allegations and to afford Jaffer an opportunity to offer any defenses, and for the purpose of determining whether any remedial action should be offered by the Commission. (Rel. 34-16480)

TRIBUTE TO JUSTICE DOUGLAS

On behalf of the staff and Members of the Commission, Chairman Harold M. Williams today expressed deep sorrow upon the death of William O. Douglas.

Justice Douglas joined the staff of the Commission in 1934, the year the agency was established, was appointed a Commissioner in 1936 and in September 1937, became the Commission's third Chairman. He served as Chairman until April 1939, when he was appointed to the Supreme Court.

"It has been a source of great pride and inspiration to those of us privileged to follow in Justice Douglas' footsteps at the SEC that this great leader was one of the molders of the traditions which we have inherited," Chairman Williams said. "The Commission benefited from Justice Douglas' wisdom and strength during its crucial, formative years, and the standards he set then remain as the standards to which we aspire today.

"I know that my fellow Commissioners and the members of the Commission's staff share in my deep sorrow and great sense of loss, and join me in expressing our heartfelt condolences to Justice Douglas' family."

LA POINTE INDUSTRIES, INC. ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on January 18 the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia enjoined La Pointe Industries, Inc. of Rockville, Connecticut, from failing timely to file periodic reports with the Commission and ordered it to comply with certain undertakings. The Commission's complaint, filed on October 25, 1979, alleged that La Pointe failed timely to file certain annual and quarterly reports as part of a continuing course of conduct extending over several years. La Pointe, in consenting to the entry of judgment against it, admitted failure to file reports on a timely basis on 7 separate occasions. (SEC v. La Pointe Industries, Inc., U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil Action No. 79-2879). (LR-8977)

CHARLES D. STILWELL, STEPHEN C. COKER CONVICTED

The Atlanta Regional Office announced that on January 10, Charles D. Stilwell and Stephen C. Coker, both of Charleston, South Carolina, each pled guilty to two counts of securities fraud of a criminal information before the Honorable Sol Blatt, Jr., U.S. District Judge, District Court of South Carolina. The information was filed by Thomas E. Lydon, Jr., the U.S. Attorney for the District of South Carolina, on the same date. The criminal charges arose in connection with the defendants' activities while officers and directors of Stilwell, Coker & Co., Inc., a now defunct broker-dealer whose registration was revoked by the Commission on July 19, 1978. No date has been set for the sentencing of the defendants. (U.S. v. Charles D. Stilwell, et al., Criminal Action No. 80-1, D.S.C.). (LR-8974)

BERNARD MAGDOVITZ SENTENCED

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on January 7, the Honorable John Powers Crowley sentenced Bernard Magdovitz to five years probation and fined him $11,000. The sanction was imposed following Magdovitz's plea of guilty to conspiracy and mail fraud charges arising from his involvement in a $25 million inventory and profit inflation scheme while employed at Cenco Incorporated, a Chicago based corporation. Magdovitz had served as Treasurer of Cenco and President of Cenco Medical Health, a Cenco subsidiary. The earlier civil injunctive action filed by the Commission against Magdovitz and other former Cenco employees is still pending. (U.S. v. Ralph Read, et al., N.D. Ill., 79 CR 277). (LR-8975)

COMMISSIONER KARMEL RESIGNS

Commissioner Roberta S. Karmel has resigned from the Commission, effective February 1, it was announced today. Mrs. Karmel, in a letter to President Carter dated January 21, said her resignation was prompted by the difficulty of fulfilling her obligations to her family, who reside in suburban New York City, while serving on the Commission. Although her term would ordinarily expire June 5, 1981, Mrs. Karmel noted that at the time of her appointment she had only committed herself to serve for two years.

"Despite the importance which I place on the work I have been doing at the Commission, and my desire to continue to effect the Commission's policies which persuaded me to remain in office beyond my two year commitment, I can no longer make the sacrifice of being away from my family so much of the time," she said in her letter of resignation. Mrs. Karmel's husband and four children lived in Washington for most of the two years following her appointment in September 1977, but moved back to the New York City area in September 1979.

Chairman Harold M. Williams expressed his "deep appreciation" for Mrs. Karmel's service on the Commission. "As a colleague," he said, "I will miss her. As a friend, I can fully appreciate her desire to be closer to her family. Roberta has brought a special dimension to our work. She came to Washington with a unique perspective on the Commission and with strongly held views for which she has been a vigorous advocate," Mr. Williams said. "Her positions on the scope and operation of the federal securities laws have stimulated much reflection and debate. The field in which the Commission operates is such a dynamic and changing one that the process of ongoing reappraisal of our responsibilities and how we discharge them, to which she has contributed, is essential and will continue."

Mrs. Karmel, 42, is the first woman to serve as a Member of the Commission. Prior to her appointment, she was a partner in the New York City law firm of Rogers & Wells, to which she will now return. A native of Chicago, Mrs. Karmel received a B.A. degree from Radcliffe College in 1959 and an LL.B. from New York University School of Law in 1962. She served on the staff of the Commission's New York Regional Office from 1962 to 1969, rising to the position of Assistant Regional Administrator before leaving to enter private practice.

J. Ball, also doing business as Tom Ball & Associates of Great Falls, Virginia, seeking to enjoin the defendant from violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The Commission's action also seeks a freeze of the defendant's assets until an accounting can be performed of his disposition of investor funds, and disgorgement of wrongfully obtained funds.

The complaint alleges that the defendant violated the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer and sale of unregistered securities in the form of "Full Binding Contracts" and "land Development Investments". The complaint further alleges that the defendant made untrue statements of material facts and failed to state material facts relating to defendant's use of investor funds and about future profits from the securities. CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST MICHAEL S. STARBUCK, OTHERS

The New York Regional Office announced the filing of a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York on January 11, seeking to enjoin Michael S. Starbuck (Starbuck), Michael Starbuck, Inc. (Starbuck, Inc.) and Michael Starbuck, Inc. and Associates, a Partnership (Starbuck Associates), all of New York, New York, from further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the Federal securities laws.

The Complaint alleges that, during the period from in or about January 1978 through the present, the defendants offered and sold to approximately 250 investors located in New York, Arizona and Florida unregistered securities, in the form of investment interests in Starbuck Associates, raising approximately $2 million to $3 million. Starbuck Associates pooled its investors' contributions and invested those funds primarily in stock options through accounts maintained at various broker-dealers. The complaint further alleges that although the full extent of Starbuck Associates' assets and liabilities connot be precisely determined, there appears to have been a loss of investors' funds to the extent that only approximately $500,000 remains.

In addition to injunctive relief, the Commission's complaint seeks the appointment of a Receiver for Starbuck Associates to, among other things, marshall the assets of Starbuck Associates and formulate a plan of distribution to the investors of Starbuck Associates.

Simultaneously with the filing of the complaint, the defendants consented, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint, to the entry of Final Judgements of Permanent Injunction and an Order appointing a Receiver and granting other equitable relief. (SEC v. Michael S. Starbuck, Michael Starbuck, Inc. and Michael Starbuck, Inc. and Associates, a Partnership, 80 Civil 0231, S.D.N.Y., HFW). (LR-8979)

FREDERICK M. FRIEDMAN AND ALAN E. SANDBERG CONVICTED

The New York Regional Office announced that on January 22, following a non-jury trial before the Honorable Inzer B. Wyatt, U.S. District Judge for the Southern District of New York, Frederick M. Friedman and Alan E. Sandberg, were each convicted on two counts of mail fraud and one count of wire fraud. Friedman is a vice president of TDA Industries, Inc., and Sandberg, is a former officer and director of the company. The convictions arose out of a transaction involving the payment of a duplicative finder's fee in connection with TDA's acquisition of Eagle Roofing & Art Metals, Inc. Friedman was acquitted on one count of the indictment, which charged that he had failed to disclose the above transaction in a TDA proxy statement in violation of the proxy solicitation rules. January 30, 1980 has been set as the sentencing for Friedman and March 6, 1980 for Sandberg.

The criminal trials arose out of the same transactions that were the subject of a prior Commission civil injunctive action. (U.S. v. Frederick M. Friedman and Alan E. Sandberg, 76 Cr. 1022, S.D.N.Y.). (LR-8981)

MONEY MARKET FUNDS; INCLUSION OF A STANDARDIZED YIELD COMPUTATION IN PROSPECTUSES

The Commission has published for comment proposals to amend Form N-1 under the Securities Act of 1933 and the Investment Company Act of 1940, and Rule 434d under the Securities Act. The amendments would require money market funds to include in their prospectuses a yield quotation and a description of the method by which yield is computed. The amendments would also require that yield computations be made according to a standardized method for use both in regular prospectuses and advertisements used pursuant to Rule 434d. The Commission withdrew a prior proposal to standardize quotations of yield by money market funds according to the yield to average life method. All comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol St., Washington, D.C. 20549, on or before April 7, 1980 and should refer to File S7-821. All comments will be available for public inspection. (Rel. 33-6183)

INITIAL DECISION IMPOSES SANCTIONS AGAINST HAMMON CAPITAL MANAGEMENT CORPORATION AND GABE HAMMON

Chief Administrative Law Judge Warren E. Blair has filed an initial decision under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 suspending the investment adviser registration of Hammon Capital Management Corporation of Denver, Colorado, for a period of ninety days, and barring for a like period its president, Gabe Hammon, from association in any proprietary or supervisory capacity with any investment adviser. The decision is subject to review by the Commission either on its own motion or on petition of a party.

Hammon Capital Management was found to have wilfully violated Section 204 of the Advisers Act and Rules 204-1 and 204-2 thereunder because of its failure to file required amendments to correct information that had become inaccurate in its application for registration as an investment adviser and because of its failure to make and keep true, accurate, and current books and records. Mr. Hammon, by reason of his control was found to have wilfully aided and abetted the company's violations. Additionally, it was found that Hammon Capital Management and Hammon violated Section 204 by their refusal to permit staff members of the Commission to make an examination of the company's books and records.

ISC FINANCIAL CORPORATION CITED

The Commission has entered an order instituting proceedings pursuant to Section 15(c)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and therewith has entered findings, an opinion and an order with respect to ISC Financial Corporation, a holding company headquartered in Kansas City, Missouri. The Commission found that ISC filed an Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended April 30, 1976, which failed in material respects to disclose the facts concerning the reinsurance operations of ISC's insurance company subsidiary, and which improperly included another subsidiary's operations as discontinued in the company's statement of earnings. The Commission also found that certain Quarterly Reports filed by ISC on Form 10-Q during its 1977 fiscal year did not meet the requirements of Section 13(a). The Commission ordered that ISC amend its 1976 Annual Report on Form 10-K and its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the first, second and third quarters of 1977 by filing an amendment to such reports on Form 8. The Commission's action was taken pursuant to an offer of settlement made by ISC in which the company consented to the issuance of the Commission's order without admitting or denying the Commission's findings set forth therein. (Rel. 34-16548)

COMPLAINT NAMES TEXTRON INC.

The Commission announced on January 31 the filing of a civil injunctive action in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia seeking to enjoin Textron Inc. from further violations of the antifraud, reporting and proxy provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and rules thereunder. The Commission's complaint alleged, among other things, that during the period from at least 1971 to 1978, Textron engaged in a course of business pursuant to which Textron, directly and indirectly, made questionable or improper foreign payments which totalled at least $5,400,000. The Commission further alleged that Textron failed to disclose the above-described course of business and risks to its earnings and revenues occasioned by such practices.

Without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint, Textron consented to the entry of a final judgment of permanent injunction enjoining the company from further violations of the antifraud, reporting and proxy provisions of the Exchange Act and rules thereunder. In addition, the judgment required that Textron file with the Commission a Current Report which describes the procedures Textron has adopted and intends to adopt pursuant to recommendations by a Special Committee of the Textron Board of Directors to prevent recurrence of matters of the nature alleged in the complaint. (SEC v. Textron Inc., U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil Action No. 80-0326). (LR-8993)

COMPLAINT NAMES PRICE AND COMPANY, OTHERS

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on January 17 a complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, seeking preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against Price and Company, a registered broker-dealer in Chicago, Illinois, and Earl Lawrence Price, managing partner of Price & Co., alleging violations of the recordkeeping provisions of the securities laws. The complaint alleges, among other things, that the defendants refused and continue to refuse to make Price & Co.'s books and records available to representatives of the Commission for examination. The Commission has sought mandatory injunctive relief to require the defendants to undertake those steps which will permit representatives of the Commission to review Price & Co.'s records. (SEC v. Price & Company, et al., U.S.D.C., N.D. Ill., Eastern Division, Civil Action No. 80-C-269). (LR-8992)

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE ENTERED AGAINST GERALD GREENSPAN

The New York Regional Office announced that on January 25 the Honorable Edward Weinfeld, U.S. District Judge in the Southern District of New York, signed an Order directing Gerald Greenspan, also known as Jay Greene (Greenspan), of Brooklyn, New York, to show cause why additional equitable relief should not be granted as part of the final judgment of permanent injunction entered against Greenspan on July 8, 1975, in the form of an Order: (1) enjoining Greenspan from purchasing the securities of Family Record Plan, Inc. and Hiller Aviation, Inc.; (2) directing him to disclose his prior injunctions by delivering copies thereof to any registered broker or dealer prior to purchasing or selling any security through such broker or dealer; and (3) requiring him to submit to the NYRO a written report listing all of his brokerage accounts and securities in which he currently holds a beneficial interest and thereafter, to submit monthly reports detailing all of his securities transactions.

A hearing on the Order to Show Cause has been scheduled for Friday, February 1, 1980 at 10:00 a.m. (SEC v. Gerald Greenspan a/k/a Jay Greene, U.S.D.C. S.D.N.Y., 75 Civil 2826, EW). (LR-8986)

MONTE LOPATA, ALBERT DUBINSKY ENJOINED

The Commission announced the filing of a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia on January 29 seeking Final Judgments of Permanent Injunction against Monte L. Lopata and Albert I. Dubinsky of Clayton, Missouri. The Commission's complaint alleged that the defendants purchased common stock of The Carboline Company on July 30 and 31, 1979 while in possession of material, non-public information concerning a preliminary agreement for Sun Company, Inc. to make a tender offer for Carboline common stock. The defendants subsequently tendered their stock in a tender offer by Sun Company, Inc. The court permanently enjoined Lopata from violating the antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and permanently enjoined Dubinsky from violating such provisions by directly or indirectly purchasing or selling securities while in possession of material, non-public information concerning such security or the issuer thereof, without having previously disclosed such information to the person from whom such security is purchased or to whom it is sold. The court further ordered the defendants to disgorge the profits realized to the sellers of the stock which they purchased. The defendants consented to the entry of the Final Judgments without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint. (SEC v. Monte L. Lopata, et al., U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil Action No. 80-0274). (LR-8985)

RAY GARRETT, JR.

The Commission notes with deep sorrow and regret the death, on February 3, 1980, of former Chairman Ray Garrett, Jr.

Chairman Harold M. Williams praised Mr. Garrett's contributions to the securities laws both as a public official and as a member of the private bar.

"Ray Garrett provided firm and effective leadership at a time when the Commission, our legislative mandate and the securities industry were all experiencing profound change. He continued to make an outstanding contribution to the development of the securities laws after he left the Commission and returned to private practice," Mr. Williams said. "Further, he was a great human being, warm and compassionate, who was held in affection and esteem by all who knew him. On behalf of my fellow Commissioners and the staff of the Commission, I extend heartfelt condolences to his family."

Mr. Garrett, 59, served as Chairman of the Commission from August 1973, through October 1975. He was engaged in private practice in Chicago between 1958 and 1973 and prior to that had worked for nearly four years as a member of the Commission's staff, most of that time as Director of the Division of Corporate Regulation.

DON F. GASTON ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on February 11 the Honorable Joyce Hens Green, U.S. District Judge for the District of Columbia, entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Ancillary Relief against Don F. Gaston of Greenwich, Connecticut, enjoining him from further violations of Sections 13(d), 13(e), and 14(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules thereunder. Mr. Gaston had been named in a July 1978 civil injunctive action, along with four other defendants, who settled the case at the time of its filing. The defendants were charged with filing false and misleading Schedule 13-D's in connection with the acquisition of shares of MPO Videotronics, Inc. common stock by Montauk Corp., and with filing false and misleading proxy statements by MPO with regard to affiliated transactions. In addition to consenting to the injunctive relief, Mr. Gaston consented to certain ancillary relief, all without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations. (SEC v. Montauk Corp., et al., D.D.C., Civil Action No. 78-1364). (LR-8997)

COMPLAINT NAMES SEATRAIN LINES, INC.

The Commission announced the filing on February 8 of a civil injunctive action in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia against Seatrain Lines, Inc. The complaint alleges violations of the reporting and proxy provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in connection with Seatrain's payment of over $14 million in cash rebates and an undeterminable amount of non-cash rebates, in violation of the Shipping Act of 1916, and violation of the reporting provisions in connection with Seatrain's failure to disclose its potential liabilities relating to the disposition in a leveraged lease transaction of the Stuyvesant, a supertanker built by the company. Simultaneously with the filing of the complaint, Seatrain consented, without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint, to the entry of an injunction prohibiting further violations of the reporting and proxy provisions and requiring that Seatrain file with the Commission a Current Report on Form 8-K disclosing the matters referred to in the complaint. (SEC v. Seatrain Lines, Inc., D.D.C., Civil Action No. 80-0386). (LR-8995)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

R.J. LOUIS & CO., INC., OTHERS ENJOINED

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on February 6 the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, issued final orders of permanent injunction against R.J. Louis & Co., Inc. (Registrant), a registered investment adviser located in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Louis J. Ragonese, Registrant's president and sole shareholder, and John P. Ollrogge, Registrant's vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and a director. The orders enjoin the defendants from violating the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. Registrant and Ragonese were also enjoined from violating the broker-dealer registration provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The orders were issued upon the consent of the defendants. (SEC v. R.J. Louis & Co., Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 78-C-3314, N.D. Ill.). (LR-8996)

MANUS, OTHERS CHARGED WITH ANTIFRAUD AND REGISTRATION VIOLATIONS

The New York Regional Office announced that on February 5 a civil injunctive action was filed seeking to enjoin Allen S. Manus, of New York City, Palm Beach, Florida, and Toronto, Ontario, Burt Kleiner, of Beverly Hills, California, Jack Summers, of New York City, International South Africa, N.V., a Netherlands Antilles corporation, and Arc Limited, a Grand Cayman corporation, from the antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The complaint alleges that at least $600,000 of ISA shares were sold to investors, without disclosure of the facts that (a) Manus had previously been enjoined in a Commission civil injunctive action; and (b) ISA's interest (valued at $2 million) in a foreign corporation which purported to own certain South West African real estate, was worthless, because in 1929, South Africa had cancelled the foreign corporation's interest in such property, and thereafter has continually denied the validity of such claim.

The complaint also names as a defendant Henry W. Trimble, Jr., 59, a lawyer practicing in New York City, and charges him with violating the registration provisions of the securities laws in connection with (a) the issuance of Arc shares in exchange for ISA shares, and (b) the sale of additional Arc shares for at least $150,000, to investors who had no relationship with ISA. (Manus and Arc are also charged with violating the registration provisions in connection with these transactions.) Manus is alleged to be president and controlling shareholder of ISA. Trimble is alleged to be vice-president of ISA, and director of, general counsel to, and vice-president of, Arc. The complaint also charged that Manus, Kleiner, Summers and ISA sold unregistered ISA shares, in violation of the registration provisions of the securities laws. (SEC v. Allen S. Manus, et al., S.D.N.Y., 80 Civil 724 [CES]). (LR-8998)

ROBERT M. KOLTERMAN AND JAMES P. SHERLOCK ENJOINED

The New York Regional Office announced that on January 17 the Honorable Charles S. Haight of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York signed a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction by Consent against Robert M. Kolterman, a resident of New York, New York, and James P. Sherlock, Jr., a resident of Clifton, New Jersey, wherein Sherlock and Kolterman were permanently enjoined from violating the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. Sherlock and Kolterman consented to the entry of the permanent injunctions without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint.

The complaint, filed on December 6, 1979, named a total of ten defendants. The complaint alleged that Kolterman, Sherlock and others participated in a scheme to sell unregistered securities in the form of convertible promissory notes of Vittorio Widemann International Corporation (VWI), and made material misrepresentations and failed to disclose material facts to investors in the offer and sale of VWI notes, and/or the common stock of Tellco Information Services. The complaint also alleged that Kolterman and others engaged in a concurrent manipulation of the over-the-counter trading market for Tellco common stock. The action is still pending as to the remaining eight defendants. (SEC v. Tellco Information Services, et al., 79 Civil 6649 [CSH]). (LR-8999)

ROGER KENNETH KNOX CITED

Pursuant to a settlement offer, the Commission barred Roger Kenneth Knox, of Houston, Texas, from association with any broker or dealer in connection with the so-called University of Houston case. In December, 1979, Knox had consented to a permanent injunction in the Commission's civil case. In November, 1979, Knox had been convicted in a state court of the securities fraud perpetrated upon the University. (Rel. 34-16554)

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED
AGAINST MARCEL H. ARONHEIM AND JAMES SCIBELLI

The Commission announced that public administrative proceedings have been ordered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against Marcel H. Aronheim of Forest Hills, New York and James Scibelli of Merrick, New York, a registered broker-dealer. The proceedings are based on allegations by the Commission's staff that Aronheim and Scibelli wilfully violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder in that they opened an options account with a registered broker-dealer without revealing their interest in the account, depositing the required margin funds or covering a deficit balance resulting from transactions they affected in the account.

A hearing will be scheduled in order to take evidence of the staff's allegations and to afford the respondents an opportunity to offer any defenses. (Rel. 34-16556)

COMMISSION RELEASES STUDY OF EFFECTS OF SAFE HARBOR RULE
ON RESALE OF UNREGISTERED SECURITIES

A Commission report released today concludes that a major SEC rule which creates a "safe harbor" for the resale of unregistered securities has no adverse effects on the over-the-counter (OTC) market for such securities.

The report, "Rule 144 Sales in the OTC Market," prepared by the Directorate of Economic and Policy Research, is the first publicly released study resulting from a joint SEC-Department of Commerce project designed to monitor the effects of SEC regulations on the capital raising abilities of small, technology-based businesses. The joint project is being conducted by the Directorate under the sponsorship of the Commerce Department's Experimental Technology Incentives Program (ETIP). The purpose of the study was to determine if sales, pursuant to Rule 144, of unregistered stock in certain issuers, particularly young, technology-based companies, in the OTC market have adversely affected the market for such stocks.

G. WEEKS SECURITIES, INC., OTHERS ENJOINED

The Atlanta Regional Office announced that on January 29 the Honorable Harry W. Wellford, U.S. District Judge for the Western District of Tennessee, entered an Order enjoining G. Weeks Securities, Inc. (GWS), a Memphis, Tennessee government securities dealer, G. Weeks & Co., Inc., Gerald D. Weeks, C. M. Hodge, John Kilpatrick, Patrick Michael and Randy Vallen, from violations of the registration provisions of the securities laws. Judge Wellford previously enjoined the defendants from violating the antifraud provisions of the securities laws on December 5, 1979. Still pending before the District Court is the Commission's Motion for Preliminary Injunction as to five other defendants. The Commission's action, which was filed on October 26, 1979, arose out of the offer and sale by GWS of contracts for the purported sale and repurchase of Government National Mortgage Association (GNMA) securities. In enjoining the registration violations, the District Court held that the simultaneous sale and repurchase agreements were securities in the form of investment contracts and evidences of indebtedness of GWS. (SEC v. G. Weeks Securities, Inc., et al., U.S.D.C. W.D. Tenn., Civil Action No. 79-2711 W). (LR-9000)

INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT RELEASES

DON F. GASTON

A notice has been issued giving interested persons until March 12 to request a hearing on an application of Don F. Gaston for an order exempting him from the provisions of Section 9(a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940. Pursuant to Section 9(c) of the Act, an order has been issued temporarily exempting Mr. Gaston from the provisions of Section 9(a) pending final determination by the Commission. (Rel. IC-11041 - Feb. 11)

HOLDING COMPANY ACT RELEASES

NEW ENGLAND ELECTRIC SYSTEM

A supplemental order has been issued releasing jurisdiction over fees and expenses heretofore reserved with respect to the issuance of 1,000,000 shares of common stock by New England Electric System pursuant to an employee share ownership plan. (Rel. 35-21428 - Feb. 12)

AMERICAN ELECTRIC POWER COMPANY, INC.

A supplemental memorandum and order has been issued authorizing American Electric Power Company, Inc. (AEP), a registered holding company, to acquire the common stock of Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Company (CSOE), an electric utility company, pursuant to a tender offer. The order accepts the agreement submitted by the parties as satisfying the conditions set forth in a prior opinion concerning a proposed settlement with municipal electric systems which had objected to the acquisition, and finds that the exchange ratio, 1.3 shares of AEP common stock for each share of CSOE common stock, is fair under the standards of the Act. (Rel. 35-21433 - Feb. 13)

OLDE & COMPANY, INC., OTHERS CITED

The Commission has ordered public administrative proceedings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against Olde & Company, Inc., a Detroit, Michigan headquartered broker-dealer; Richard G. Hawks, of Aurora, Illinois, a registered representative in Olde's St. Charles Illinois office; and Rondo J. Ziegler, of St. Charles, Illinois, a former registered representative with Olde.

The Commission's order is based upon allegations that Olde, Hawks and Ziegler wilfully violated and wilfully aided and abetted violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities in the offer and sale of options on securities. The order is also based upon allegations that Olde failed to supervise Hawks and Ziegler with a view towards preventing the aforementioned violations.

A hearing will be scheduled to determine whether the allegations against Olde, Hawks and Ziegler and true and, if so, to decide what, if any, remedial action should be ordered by the Commission. (Rel. 34-16559)

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

JEROME MATUSOW AND IRWIN HYMAN ENTER GUILTY PLEAS

The Commission announced that on January 28 Jerome Matusow, former president of Aminex Resources Corporation, and Irwin Hyman, former vice president of Aminex, entered pleas of guilty before Federal District Judge Constance Baker Motley to one count of wire fraud and one count of false filing under Section 13(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and that on February 7, Judge Motley sentenced the defendants respectively to 2-1/2 years and 3 years imprisonment in connection with the January 28 guilty pleas and separate previously announced guilty pleas entered on December 3, 1979.

On January 28 the defendants pleaded guilty to charges that beginning in 1976 they devised and executed a scheme to defraud by fraudulently selling to nine limited partnerships, for over $8 million in cash and over $58 million in non-recourse notes, interests in coal properties, which interests were to be utilized by the investors in the limited partnerships for the purpose of taking federal tax deductions totalling over $66 million.

Aminex Resources Corporation, et al., Civil Action No. 78-0410(D.D.C.), and on May 24, 1978 obtained, by consent, a Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Ancillary Relief against Matusow and Hyman. CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

COMPLAINT NAMES W.D.L. ENTERPRISES, INC., OTHERS

The Fort Worth Regional Office announced that on February 1 a complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Louisiana, Shreveport Division, seeking preliminary and permanent injunctions against W.D.L. Enterprises, Inc., Jalyn, Inc. and Robert L. Futrell, all of Shreveport, Louisiana, from further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The complaint also seeks an accounting by defendants of all funds received and disbursed by them during the period from May 6, 1976, through the present.

The complaint alleges that the defendants offered and sold unregistered securities in the form of fractional undivided working interests in oil and gas leases. The complaint further alleges that the defendants made material misrepresentations and omitted to state material facts, concerning, among other things: the use of investor funds by the defendants; the success of the past drilling operations; the amount of production and return which investors could expect; and the progress made on the drilling and completion of wells and the production obtained from them.

The court has scheduled a hearing on the Commission's Motion for Preliminary Injunction for February 28. (SEC v. W.D.L. Enterprises, Inc., et al., U.S.D.C., W.D. La., Civil Action No. CI-800131). (LR-9002)

The Atlanta Regional Office announced that on January 22 the Federal Court in New Orleans, Louisiana, denied the Commission's motion for a preliminary injunction to restrain Charles Toth, president of Toth Aluminum Corporation, New Orleans, from alleged violations of the registration, antifraud and reporting provisions of the securities laws. The court found there was no "reasonable likelihood" of violations pending trial, which is set for June 16, 1980. (SEC v. Charles Toth, et al., E.D. La., Civil Action No. 79-4758). (LR-9003)

FUTURE COMMUNITIES, INC. ENJOINED

The Commission's complaint, filed on November 19, 1979, alleged that Future Communities failed to timely file certain annual and quarterly reports as part of a continuing course of conduct extending over several years. Future Communities, in consenting to the entry of judgment against it, admitted failure to file reports on a timely basis on 16 separate occasions. (SEC v. Future Communities, Inc., U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil Action No. 79-3147). (LR-9009)

RICHARD C. FLICK FOUND GUILTY

The Atlanta Regional Office announced that on February 1 Richard C. Flick of Memphis, Tennessee was found guilty by a Federal Court jury in Raleigh, North Carolina on each count of a five-count indictment charging violations of securities, wire and mail fraud. The indictment arose from Flick's activities as an unregistered broker-dealer doing business as El Taco, Inc. and L.N.I.B. in 1977 and 1978 including the period from April to September 1978 during which he was suspended from association with any broker or dealer as a result of earlier activities at Shelby Bond Service Corp., a now-defunct Memphis, Tennessee municipal bond dealer. The indictment charged Flick with soliciting money from a resident of North Carolina for the purpose of purchasing municipal bonds for the customer and then not delivering the bonds.

Immediately following the jury verdict, Judge F. T. Dupree, Jr. of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina sentenced Flick to imprisonment for five years on Count I of the indictment, five years on Count II to run consecutively to the sentence imposed on Count I, and five years each on Counts III, IV and V, to run concurrently with the sentences imposed on Counts I and II, and a $5,000 fine. (U.S. v. Richard C. Flick, U.S.D.C. E.D. N.C., Criminal Action No. 79-20-CR-8). (LR-9004)

COMMISSIONER EVANS SPEAKS BEFORE THE UTAH STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

Commissioner Evans spoke before the Business and the Securities Laws Seminar, Continuing Legal Education, Utah State Bar Association, co-sponsored by the Brigham Young University and the University of Utah, in Salt Lake City, Utah, on February 14, 1980. The title of his address was "An Inside View of the SEC Regulatory Process".

COMPLAINT NAMES AEGEAN INDUSTRIES, INC., OTHERS

The New York Regional Office announced on February 13 the filing of a civil injunctive action seeking to enjoin Aegean Industries, Inc., a New York corporation formally engaged in the development of vinyl cedar-shake siding products; Stanley J. Sanders of Roslyn, New York, an attorney, who has served as a former president of Aegean, and is currently a director and shareholder of Aegean; and Vincent Fava of East Meadows, New York, the inventor of Aegean's siding products, who has been a director and shareholder of Aegean since its inception, from future violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws.

The complaint alleged that, commencing in 1973, the defendants made false and misleading statements in three unregistered distributions of Aegean securities, raising approximately $700,000 from approximately 100 investors. In addition to injunctive relief, the complaint seeks an order directing Sanders and Fava to disgorge certain monies. (SEC v. Aegean Industries, Inc., S.D.N.Y., 80 Civil 843, C.S.H.). (LR-9006)

THOMAS J. BALL ENJOINED

The Washington Regional Office announced that on February 1 the Honorable Oren R. Lewis, U.S. District Court Judge for the Eastern District of Virginia, entered a final judgment permanently enjoining Thomas J. Ball, also doing business as Tom Ball & Associates, from violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer, purchase, and sale of securities in the form of "Full Binding Contracts", "Land Developments Investments" and other securities. The final judgment also permanently enjoins the defendant from violating the investment adviser registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The order also provides for a freezing of the defendant's assets and for an accounting to be performed by the Commission of all investor funds paid to defendant.

The final judgment was entered with the consent of the defendant, who neither admitted nor denied the allegations of the complaint. The final judgment also provides that the court shall retain jurisdiction over the defendant and the subject matter for the purpose of determining the appropriateness and amount, if any, of further equitable relief in the form of disgorgement. (SEC v. Thomas J. Ball, U.S.D.C. E.D. Va., Alexandria Division, Civil Action No. 80-44-A). (LR-9008)

ORDERS SIGNED RE SALOMON BROTHERS, OTHERS

The Commission announced that on February 14 the Honorable Robert L. Carter, U.S. District Judge for the Southern District of New York, signed orders relating to Salomon Brothers, Kenneth Lipper, Eberstadt Asset Management, Inc., Eberstadt Fund Management, Inc., and F. Eberstadt & Co., Inc. The orders require that each of the parties comply with a stipulation of settlement which they agreed to and do not constitute an admission or denial of any issue of law or fact in the proceedings.

The stipulations require, inter alia, that in the future each of the entities shall make the initial filings required under Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. In addition, each of the entities agreed to have or continue in practice as the case may be certain procedures for certain transactions which relate to the filing requirements of Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act, and in the case of Eberstadt Asset Management and Eberstadt Fund Management, Sections 17(d) and 17(e) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, which they have also agreed to comply with.

Furthermore, Eberstadt Asset Management and Eberstadt Fund Management agreed that the fee received by the predecessor to Eberstadt Asset Management for rendering financial advice to Sun Co. shall be deemed to be the property of the Chemical and Surveyor Funds. Subject to the approval of the Boards of Directors of such Funds and the court, such moneys may be used to settle or pay any judgment against Eberstadt Asset Management or Eberstadt Fund Management that may arise out of related class actions. In addition, the court signed an order proposed by the Commission terminating the Commission's action against Fairleigh S. Dickinson, Jr.

The Commission filed its civil complaint on March 9, 1978, alleging violations of, inter alia, beneficial ownership and tender offer provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Sections 17(d) and 17(e) of the Investment Company Act of 1940. The court in its opinion of July 9, 1979, reported in 475 F.Supp. 783 (S.D.N.Y. 1979), found violations of the securities laws as to these parties. The above orders conclude the Commission's case against these parties. (SEC v. Sun Co., Inc., et al., S.D.N.Y., Civil Action No. 78-1055). (LR-9010)

SMITH W. BAGLEY, OTHERS ENJOINED

The Washington Regional Office announced that on February 20, pursuant to a settlement, the U.S. District Court in Washington, D.C., entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction against Smith W. Bagley, James R. Gilley and William F. Thomas. The defendants consented to being enjoined without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint. The judgment enjoins Bagley and Gilley from violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) and Rule 10b-5 thereunder of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in the offer, sale or purchase of the securities of any issuer subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 of the Exchange Act of which the defendant is an officer or director or holds a certain percentage of the outstanding securities. Additionally, Bagley and Gilley are enjoined from failing to comply with the reporting provisions of Sections 13(d) and 16(a) of the Exchange Act and from causing to be filed with the Commission any annual or periodic report required to be filed pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act which contains any misstatement of material fact or omits to state any material fact necessary to be made in order to make the statements made, not misleading. The judgment enjoins Thomas from violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act and Section 10(b) and Rule 10b-5 thereunder of the Exchange Act in connection with the offer, sale or purchase of any over-the-counter securities by effecting a series of transactions creating actual or apparent trading activity or raising or depressing the price of any such securities by others, or otherwise manipulating the market price of any such securities. (SEC v. Smith W. Bagley, et al., U.S.D.C., D.C., Civil Action No. 79-0812). (LR-9011)

ADOPTION OF RULE 11Aa3-1 RELATING TO COLLECTION AND DISSEMINATION OF TRANSACTION REPORTS AND LAST SALE DATA

The Commission has issued a release adopting Rule 11Aa3-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Rule 11Aa3-1 governs the collection and dissemination of transaction information regarding equity securities listed on a national securities exchange. Specifically, the Rule would, among other matters, (1) provide that no national securities exchange or association may prohibit retransmission of the data stream of transaction information on a current and continuing basis for the purpose of creating a moving ticker; (2) add explicit procedures for amending transaction reporting plans filed with and approved by the Commission pursuant to the Rule; and (3) redesignate Rule 17a-15 under the Act as Rule 11Aa3-1. In addition, the Commission also has adopted technical conforming amendments (reflecting the redesignation of Rule 17a-15 as Rule 11Aa3-1) to certain of its other rules under the Act and the Securities Act of 1933. (Rel. 34-16589)

ADOPTION OF RULE 11Ac1-2 RELATING TO DISSEMINATION AND DISPLAY OF TRANSACTION REPORTS, LAST SALE DATA AND QUOTATION INFORMATION

The Commission has adopted a rule establishing minimum requirements governing the manner in which transaction, quotation and market information is displayed by vendors of securities information and which prohibits any broker or dealer from operating or maintaining any display of transaction, quotation or market information which a vendor would be prohibited from operating or maintaining. COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

REORGANIZATION OF THE DIVISION OF CORPORATION FINANCE

The Commission has announced the reorganization of the disclosure operations section of the Division into ten processing branches and the implementation of industry centralization which generally provides for the assignment of registrants to the processing branches on the basis of their industry classification. Under this system, except in certain situations involving affiliated entities, each registrant will be assigned on the basis of its primary Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Code to one of thirty-four industry groups. This will permit the Division to better ascertain the particular disclosure needs of different industries and to more readily identify industry trends. The reoganization is a part of the Commission's overall plan for strengthening the Division's operating procedures to enable it to respond more effectively to changing conditions. Each registrant will receive a letter shortly identifying the branch chief responsible for processing its filings under both the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

COMMISSION REQUESTS COMMENT ON IMPACT OF FOREIGN BRIBERY PROVISIONS

The Commission is requesting public comment from issuers and other interested persons regarding the impact and operation of Section 30A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. That provision, which was enacted as part of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, prohibits registered issuers from using any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce in furtherance of any corrupt offer, payment, gift, promise to pay or give, or authorization of any payment or gift to foreign officials and certain other persons.

The Commission has no empirical evidence concerning the actual impact of the Act upon affected persons, or the extent to which any uncertainty concerning its applicability has influenced the willingness or ability of Commission registrants to engage in foreign commerce. Accordingly, the Commission is seeking to understand and evaluate any questions or concerns which may have arisen since the enactment of Section 30A. Comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before the close of business on June 30, 1980, and should refer to File No. S7-822. (Rel. 34-16593)

R.J. LOUIS & CO., INC., OTHERS

The Commission announced the simultaneous institution and settlement of an administrative proceeding against R.J. Louis & Co., Inc. (Registrant), a registered investment adviser located in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Louis J. Ragonese of Meguon, Wisconsin, Registrant's president and sole shareholder, and John P. Ollrogge of Shorewood, Wisconsin, Registrant's vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and a director. The Commission found that Registrant, Ragonese, and Ollrogge had been permanently enjoined by the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois from further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws, and that Registrant and Ragonese had also been enjoined from further violations of the broker-dealer registration provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Based upon the above findings and the offers of settlement submitted by the respondents, the Commission censured Registrant and prohibited it from soliciting or accepting any new customers for a period of 30 days, and suspended Ragonese and Ollrogge from association with any investment adviser or affiliate thereof. The Commission also ordered Registrant and Ragonese to comply with their undertakings to reimburse certain clients, and institute certain procedures relating to the conduct of Registrant's business. Each of the respondents consented to the above findings and sanctions. (Rel. IA-712)

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST HUMAN SERVICE GROUP, INC.

The Commission announced the issuance of an Order instituting administrative proceedings pursuant to Section 15(c)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and findings and order against Human Service Group, Inc. (HSG), a District of Columbia corporation engaged in a variety of consulting services in the health training and health education fields, and in the management and operation of two psychiatric facilities. HSG, pursuant to the terms of its Offer of Settlement, without admitting or denying the Commission's findings, consented to the issuance of the Findings and Order of the Commission.

In its Order, the Commission found that HSG failed to comply with Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder by failing to file Schedules 13D in connection with its holdings of American Health Services, Inc. between June 1972 and March 1979.

HSG was ordered to comply with the reporting requirements of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder and to file all delinquent Schedule(s) 13D or amendments thereto. HSG was further ordered to comply with its undertakings to adopt, implement and maintain procedures designed to assure future compliance with Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act. (Rel. 34-16600)

DAVID H. HALL CHARGED WITH INSIDER TRADING VIOLATIONS, OBTAINS INJUNCTION AND DISGORGEMENT OF PROFITS

The Commission announced on February 22 that the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia permanently enjoining David H. Hall, a practicing attorney residing in New York City, from violations of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and also ordered certain other equitable relief. Hall consented to the entry of Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint.

The Commission's complaint alleged that Hall devotes a major portion of his legal practice to advising publicly held companies who typically retain him as a "special shareholder relations" counsel to assist in matters such as preparing for annual meetings or defending against takeover attempts and proxy contests. The complaint charged that Hall traded in the securities of certain of these companies while in possession of material, non-public information without disclosing such information. In addition to the entry of injunctive relief against Hall, certain other equitable relief was undertaken by Hall and ordered by the court. In connection therewith, Hall agreed to make disgorgement, pursuant to a Plan of Disgorgement, of $33,742.00 in profits he derived from certain of his securities transactions. (SEC v. David H. Hall, U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil Action No. 80-0504). (LR-9013)

JOHN C. STERGE, OTHERS SENTENCED

The Boston Regional Office announced that the Honorable Andrew A. Caffrey, Chief Judge of the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts, sentenced John C. Sterge of Boston, Massachusetts to concurrent jail terms of thirty months. He received an additional sentence of one year, to be served on and after the thirty month sentences; sentence suspended; and three years probation. First Financial Equity Corporation was sentenced to a $1,000 fine on a plea of guilty to one count of mail fraud. Sterge, who from 1965 to 1976 was president of An-Car Oil Co., Inc., formerly located in Boston, and who was also president of First Financial Equity Corporation from 1976 to 1978, was sentenced on his plea of guilty to three counts of a nine count indictment charging him with violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws and mail fraud in the sale of limited partnership interests and fractional undivided working interests in oil and gas wells located in Ohio and Tennessee offered by An-Car, and in a Wyoming coal tax shelter program offered by First Financial. The court granted Sterge a stay of execution of sentence until February 29, 1980 at 10:00 a.m. The sentencing of An-Car was deferred until a later date. (U.S. v. John Sterge, et al., D. Mass., Criminal No. 79-372-C). (LR-9012)

DECISION SUSPENDING ROYAL W. CARSON, JR. FINAL

The decision of an administrative law judge suspending Royal W. Carson, Jr. of Oklahoma City, from association with any broker or dealer for four months has become final. Carson is president of Royal W. Carson & Co., Inc., an Oklahoma City brokerage firm. During his suspension, which is effective March 10, Carson may retain his stock interest in and various offices with his firm, and collect any dividends on his stock, but may not collect any salary or bonus from the firm or participate in any way in the firm's activities.

According to the decision, Carson violated the terms of a 1978 Commission suspension order, entered pursuant to an offer of settlement, by engaging in supervisory activity at his firm during the period of his suspension. (Rel. 34-16572)

COMPLAINT NAMES PENN PACIFIC CORPORATION

The Commission announced that on February 25 it filed in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia a civil injunctive action against Penn Pacific Corporation alleging violations of the reporting provisions of the securities laws and seeking a Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Relief.

The complaint alleges that Penn Pacific has failed to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended September 30, 1979, required to have been filed with the Commission by December 29, 1979, and its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for its fiscal quarter ended December 31, 1979, required to have been filed with the Commission by February 14, 1980. Further, the complaint charged that Penn Pacific, as part of a continuing course of violative conduct, has failed to timely file certain of its annual and quarterly reports with the Commission. The complaint requests that the court order Penn Pacific to file forthwith with the Commission, its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended September 30, 1979, and its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for its fiscal quarter ended December 31, 1979. Further the Commission requested that the court enjoin Penn Pacific from further violations of the reporting provisions of the securities laws. (SEC v. Penn Pacific Corp., U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil Action No. 80-519). (LR-9017)

JOHN VALO SENTENCED

The New York Regional Office announced that on January 30 the Honorable Charles S. Haight, Jr., U.S. District Judge for the Southern District of New York, sentenced John Valo of Fords, New Jersey, to two months imprisonment and 22 months probation following a guilty plea to two counts of an information charging him with violations of the antifraud and credit extension provisions of the securities laws and the regulations promulgated thereto by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

In a related civil injunctive action, Valo was enjoined, by consent, on February 3, 1978, from further violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act, Sections 7(f) and 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, and Regulation X promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System pursuant to Section 7(f) of the Exchange Act. (U.S. v. John Valo, S.D.N.Y., 78 Cr. 524). (LR-9014)

SHELDON S. MOSS, OTHERS INDICTED

The Atlanta Regional Office announced that on January 20 a federal grand jury sitting in Greensboro, North Carolina, returned an eighteen-count indictment against Sheldon Rothman of Chicago, Illinois, and a nineteen-count indictment against Sheldon S. Moss of Chicago, Illinois, Daniel King Brainard, and Halton Q. Bittick of Greensboro, North Carolina. The indictment charges Rothman with eighteen counts of mail fraud in the offer and sale of securities, namely evidences of indebtedness of Moss, doing business as Television Marketing and Correlated Equities Corp. (TVM evidences of indebtedness). The indictment charges Moss, Brainard, and Bittick with eighteen counts of mail fraud in the offer and sale of the TVM evidences of indebtedness, and with one count of making a false statement in a report required to be filed with the Commission.

Moss and Brainard were named as defendants in a civil injunctive action instituted by the Commission in November, 1978, which is based, in part, on violations of the securities laws which occurred in connection with the offer and sale of the TVM evidences of indebtedness. In that action, pursuant to a consent in which he neither admitted nor denied the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint, Moss has been permanently enjoined from further violating the registration and antifraud provisions and ordered to disgorge $4,500,000. Also in that action, pursuant to a consent in which he neither admitted nor denied the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint, Brainard has been preliminarily enjoined from further violating the registration and antifraud provisions, and from aiding and abetting violations of the broker-dealer registration and investment adviser registration provisions. (U.S. v. Sheldon Moss, et al., M.D. of North Carolina, Criminal Action No. 80-176). (LR-9015)

JOHN R. AND BERTHA M. BROMLEY INDICTED

The Los Angeles Regional Office announced that on February 7 John R. and Bertha M. Bromley of Houston, Texas were indicted by a federal grand jury sitting in Phoenix, Arizona, for 62 counts of mail fraud, securities fraud, and interstate transportation of property taken by fraud. The indictment alleges that between January 1979 and April 1976, the defendants, as owners and operators of Heritage Trust Company, made numerous misrepresentations to investors throughout the United States and that they concealed risky investments of investors' money, defaults, and high commissions by taking money from new investors to pay money owed to old investors. (U.S. v. John R. and Bertha M. Bromley, CR 80-019). (LR-9016)

GENERAL COUNSEL'S CONSIDERATION OF COMMISSION AMICUS CURIAE PARTICIPATION

Ralph C. Ferrara, General Counsel of the Commission, has reiterated his Office's longstanding position that, in view of the many legal issues of importance to the Commission raised in cases in which the Commission is not a party, litigants and their counsel are encouraged to bring to the General Counsel's attention matters in which amicus curiae participation by the Commission may be appropriate.

Mr. Ferrara noted that the Commission participates amicus curiae in both private and governmental litigation because the impact of the resolution of important legal issues often extends beyond the parties in the particular case and can have a significant effect on the Commission's own regulatory and enforcement programs. Private litigation under the federal securities laws may raise such issues, and litigation involving other governmental bodies may present question of administrative law that have significance for the Commission.

Due to the Commission's limited resources as well as for policy reasons, the General Counsel must be selective in recommending cases to the Commission for amicus participation. For example, Commission amicus participation is generally appropriate only on legal, rather than factual, issues, and the Commission generally participates amicus in appellate, rather than trial, courts.

Litigants and counsel who believe that Commission amicus participation might be appropriate should bring the matter in question to the attention of Ralph C. Ferrara, General Counsel, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549. Cases of possible interest to the Commission should be brought to the General Counsel's attention as far as possible in advance of the date on which any Commission brief or other pleading would be due. In that connection. litigants are invited to inform the General Counsel of trial court proceedings which, once the appellate stage is reached, may present issues of interest to the Commission and to keep the Office apprised of significant developments in the case as it progresses. (LR-9023)

FILES ON CORPORATE PAYMENTS MADE PUBLIC

The Commission, pursuant to requests under the Freedom of Information Act, has made available to the public certain previously non-public files in its possession relating to questionable corporate payments. Files concerning the following corporations will be made available beginning today: Chart House Inc., CTS Corporation and McCulloch Oil Corporation. These files, and others made available previously, may be inspected at the Commission's Public Reference Room, Room 6101, 1100 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Persons wishing further information may call the Public Reference Room at (202) 523-5360.

CALIFORNIA CAPITAL PLANNING SERVICES, INC., OTHERS ENJOINED

The San Francisco Branch Office announced that on January 30 the Honorable William H. Orrick of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California entered a final order of permanent injunction and equitable relief against California Capital Planning Services, Inc. (Cal Cap), its wholly-owned subsidiary, Investment Research Group, Inc. (IRG), a registered investment adviser, and N. William Vertrees, K. Wayne Rice, and Karl J. Gerlach, the three principal officers of Cal Cap and IRG.

The defendants consented to the entry of the order without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint filed November 15, 1979, which alleged that the defendants had made untrue statements of material fact and omitted to state material facts in connection with the their use of proceeds from the sale of interests in limited partnerships in which Cal Cap was general partner. The order enjoined the defendants from violating the antifraud provisions of the securities laws and required them to institute corrective procedures including: (1) full disclosure to each investor of the amount, duration and current status of all undisclosed loans; (2) the issuance to all investors of quarterly and annual partnership financial statements for each partnership; (3) the adoption of internal procedures to prevent improper disbursement of partnership funds; (4) the adoption of a detailed partnership agreement governing the defendants' conduct of any current partnership; and (5) additional written disclosures to be provided future investors in limited partnerships. COMPLAINT NAMES GENERAL DYNAMICS CORPORATION
WITH INSIDER TRADING VIOLATIONS

The Commission announced that on February 27 the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Missouri entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction restraining and enjoining General Dynamics Corporation, a Delaware corporation headquartered in St. Louis, Missouri, from further violations of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. General Dynamics consented to the entry of the Final Judgment without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint.

The complaint alleges that General Dynamics purchased 157,500 shares of its common stock from December 6 through December 29, 1978, while in the possession of material non-public information concerning the proposed payment of a cash dividend. The complaint alleges that at the time of its purchases several events had occurred, including that General Dynamics had commenced planning for a dividend, General Dynamics management was in favor of a dividend, had requested and received legal advice that a dividend paid in 1979 would be treated as a return of capital for federal income tax purposes, had sent a special study comparing General Dynamics to companies in related industries in terms of dividend payments to its Board of Directors and General Dynamics' Board of Directors had scheduled its consideration on the payment of a dividend for their meeting on January 4, 1979. General Dynamics declared a dividend on January 4, 1979.

In addition to the entry of the Final Judgment, as part of the settlement, General Dynamics undertook to implement and maintain policies and procedures with respect to future purchases of General Dynamics common stock and to report annually to the Commission concerning all purchases of its own securities. (SEC v. General Dynamics Corporation, U.S.D.C. E.D. Mo., Civil Action No. 80-0279-C[2]). (LR-9021)

The Commission announced the institution of public administrative proceedings against Verrilli, Altschuler, Schwartz, Inc. (VAS), a registered broker-dealer with offices located in New York City, United Monetary Services, Inc. (UMS) whose offices are located in Port Jefferson, New York, M. Richard Verrilli of Trumbell, Connecticut, Stanley S. Altschuler of New York City, Stephen Schwartz of New York City, Frank J. Guiffrida of Port Jefferson, New York, Francis S. Casey of Wantagh, New York, Clifton J. Batson of Tenafly, New Jersey and Joseph T. Zappala of Pennsville, New Jersey.

The Commission simultaneously announced the settlement of the proceedings as to Casey, pursuant to an offer of settlement submitted by him in which he consented, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Order for Public Proceedings, to the entry of an order providing for findings and the imposition of sanctions. FINAL RULES RE ANNUAL REPORTS BY MUTUAL AND
SUBSIDIARY SERVICE COMPANIES

The Commission prescribes the use of an amended report form U-13-60, revised to conform to the amended Uniform System of Accounts for Mutual and Subsidiary Service Companies, adopted by the Commission on February 2, 1979 (Rel. 35-20910 - 44 FR 8247) and to extend the filing date for the annual reports by mutual and subsidiary service companies under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 from April 1 to May 1 of each year. Adoption of these proposals will make the annual report consistent with the system of accounts and (1) simplify the preparation of the annual report, (2) more clearly disclose financial, accounting, and operational information needed by Federal and state authorities which regulate the affiliated public utility companies served by the service companies and (3) facilitate the conduct of audit and account inspection programs. The rule and report form shall be effective not later than January 1, 1981. (Rel. 35-21447)

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Robert P. Wason (202) 523-5159.

Miller of Atlanta, Georgia, a former officer and director of Registrant; and James A. Davis of Stone Mountain, Georgia, a former officer of another affiliate of Registrant and a sales representative for Registrant.

The Order (1) revoked the registration of Registrant; (2) barred ETI Corporation, Resources, and ETI Management from association with a broker-dealer or investment adviser, provided, however, that they may apply to the Commission to become associated after 18 months; (3) suspended Miller from association with a broker-dealer or investment adviser for six months and thereafter barred him from association with a broker-dealer or investment adviser in a proprietary or supervisory capacity, provided that 18 months after the date of the Order Miller may apply to the Commission to become associated with a broker-dealer or investment adviser in a proprietary or supervisory capacity; and (4) suspended Davis from association with a broker-dealer or investment adviser in any capacity for 30 days.

The sanctions were based upon findings that Registrant, ETI Corporation, and Miller wilfully violated and/or wilfully aided and abetted violations of the registration, antifraud, net capital, financial reporting and books and records provisions; and Resources, ETI Management and Davis wilfully violated and/or wilfully aided and abetted violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws.

The respondents consented to the order without admitting or denying the findings. (Rel. 34-16584)

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AND SANCTIONS IMPOSED AGAINST HENRY M. KLAUSMAN

The Commission announced that it has instituted administrative proceedings and simultaneously accepted an offer of settlement from Henry M. Klausman, doing business as Institute for Financial Planning (IFP), a registered investment adviser located in Atlanta, Georgia. The Commission made findings that Klausman wilfully violated the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer and sale of interests in real estate limited partnerships, which he syndicated and served as the general partner thereof. Without admitting or denying the allegations, Klausman consented to an Order which suspended him from association with a broker-dealer or investment adviser for 30 days and suspended Klausman's registration as an investment adviser for 30 days. The Order further requires Klausman to comply with his undertakings: (1) to provide each investor in the real estate limited partnerships syndicated by him between 1972 and 1974 with a document disclosing the price at which he acquired the property and the price that the partnership paid to acquire the property; and (2) for a period of 12 months not to offer for sale or otherwise participate in the distribution of unregistered securities offerings made in reliance on Section 3(a)(11) or Section 4(2) of the Securities Act without obtaining advice of counsel regarding compliance with the exemption. (Rel. 34-16585)

YASIN JAFFER REGISTRATION REVOKED

The Commission has announced that it has ordered that the registration of Yasin Jaffer, of Villa Park, Illinois, as a broker and dealer be revoked; and it has further ordered that Jaffer be barred from being associated with any broker or dealer. Jaffer did not answer the order which instituted the administrative proceedings on January 9, 1980. The Secretary found, based on the order instituting the proceedings, that Jaffer wilfully violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Sections 10(b), 15(b), 15(c)(1) and 17(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 10b-5, 10b-10, 15b1-2, 15b3-1, 15b10-6, 15c1-4, 17a-3, 17a-4, 17a-5 and 17a-11(c) thereunder. (Rel. 34-16596)

NASD SANCTIONS AGAINST RICHARD L. ROBINSON REDUCED

The Commission has reduced a $3,000 fine assessed by the NASD against Richard L. Robinson, of Los Angeles, to $1,000, and affirmed the NASD's imposition of censure.

The Commission found, as had the NASD, that in November 1976, Robinson sold units in certain limited partnerships to customers without giving his employer the required prior written notice. In reducing the fine imposed by the NASD, the Commission noted that Robinson had made some effort to give his employer prior oral notice of his sales, and had also tried to protect his employer from any liability that might arise from those sales. (Rel. 34-16597)

DONALD F. NIETZEL SANCTIONED

In connection with a previously instituted administrative proceeding, the Commission has accepted an Offer of Settlement submitted by Donald F. Nietzel of Oak Lawn, Illinois. Based on the Offer, which neither admits nor denies the allegations of the Order for Proceedings, the Commission entered an order finding that Nietzel wilfully violated the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and wilfully aided and abetted violations of the net capital and recordkeeping requirements of the Exchange Act.

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

R. J. LOUIS & CO., INC., OTHERS ENJOINED

The Chicago Regional Office announced that Final Orders of Permanent Injunction by consent were issued against R. J. Louis & Co., Inc., Louis J. Ragonese and John P. Ollrogge, on February 6, 1980, by Judge Bernard H. Decker of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. The defendants consented to the orders without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations of violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws.

Judge Decker specifically ordered that the defendants, in conducting any future sales of securities, shall disclose to all individuals material information regarding such securities to include, among other things, the financial condition of the issuer, the use of proceeds, the liquidity or marketability, the current or future values, the risk associated with investing, and any conflicts of interest. (SEC v. R. J. Louis & Co., Inc., et al., N.D. Ill., Civil Action No. 78 C 3314). (LR-9025)

FINAL JUDGMENTS ENTERED AGAINST JASTROMB AND MOORE; FINAL ORDERS ENTERED AGAINST DUKE AND KENDALL

The Commission announced that on March 5 the Honorable June L. Green, U.S. District Judge for the District of Columbia entered Final Judgments of Permanent Injunction against Marshall L. Jastromb and Gene Moore and Final Orders against Douglas Duke and John R. Kendall. Jastromb, Moore, Duke and Kendall are codefendants with The Fundpack, Inc., Holding Trust and Holdings of U.S. Government Securities, Inc., a complex of mutual funds in Coral Gables, Florida (the Funds), Fundpack Management, Inc. (Management) (the Funds' former investment adviser) and its two subsidiaries, and with seven of the Funds' other former officers and directors, in a complaint filed by the Commission on March 21, 1979. Jastromb, a dentist, and Moore, a surgeon, were formerly vice-presidents and directors of each of the Funds and of Management and its subsidiaries. Duke, an astronomer, was formerly portfolio manager for Fundpack and a director of Government. Kendall was operations officer for the Funds and an employee of Management. The Commission's complaint alleged that Jastromb, Moore, Duke and Kendall, as well as the other defendants, violated numerous provisions of the antifraud, proxy, reporting, registration and fiduciary obligation provisions of the securities laws.

The Final Judgments permanently enjoin Jastromb and Moore from engaging in conduct violating certain of the antifraud, registration and fiduciary obligation provisions of the securities laws. The Final Orders prohibit Duke and Kendall from engaging in conduct violating certain of the antifraud, registration and fiduciary obligation provisions of the securities laws. Jastromb, Moore, Duke and Kendall consented to the entry of the Final Judgments and Orders without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint. (SEC v. The Fundpack, Inc., et al., U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil Action No. 79-0859). (LR-9026)

COMPLAINT NAMES TRANS AMERICAN PETROLEUM COMPANY, INC., OTHERS

The Atlanta Regional Office and the Miami Branch Office announced the filing of a complaint on February 28 in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, Fort Lauderdale Division, alleging violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws by Trans American Petroleum Company, Inc., Daniel J. McCarthy and Gerald Leon Bloom.

The Commission's complaint alleged that the defendants offered and sold investment contracts in the form of interests in limited partnerships engaged in the business of oil and gas exploration to the public. It was further alleged that the defendants offered and sold these securities without a registration statement being filed, or in effect, to over 40 investors throughout the United States, and collected approximately $400,000. The Commission further alleged that in connection with the offer and sale of these securities, the defendants failed to disclose, and made misleading statements regarding, among other things, the failure to maintain escrow accounts for investors' funds as represented, the lack of books and records of Trans America, the use of the proceeds of the offering, the existence of Cease and Desist Orders naming the defendants, and that McCarthy consented to being enjoined from further violations of the Florida consumer and securities laws.

The Commission sought a Temporary Restraining Order, and Preliminary and Permanent Injunction, enjoining the defendants from further violations of Sections 5(a), 5(c) and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. Additionally, the Commission sought the appointment of a receiver and a temporary freeze of the defendants' assets. Judge Norman C. Roettger signed the Temporary Restraining Order temporarily freezing the assets of the defendants. (SEC v. Trans America Petroleum Company, Inc., et al., S.D. Fla., Civil Action No. 80-6107-CIV-NCR). (LR-9027)

W.D.L. ENTERPRISES, INC., OTHERS ENJOINED

The order also directed the defendants to file with the court an accounting of all funds received and disbursed by them during the period from May 6, 1976 through the present.

The complaint alleged that the defendants offered and sold unregistered securities in the form of fractional undivided working interests in oil and gas leases. The complaint further alleged that the defendants made material misrepresentations and omitted to state material facts, concerning, among other things, the use of investor funds by the defendants, the success of the past drilling operations, the amount of production and return which investors could expect, and the progress made on the drilling and completion of wells and the production obtained from them. (SEC v. W.D.L. Enterprises, Inc., et al., U.S.D.C., S.D. La., Civil Action No. CI 800131). (LR-9028)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS UNDER SECTION 15(b)
BROUGHT AGAINST ALM, KANE, ROGERS & CO. AND LEE KORHUMEL

The Commission announced the institution of administrative proceedings pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act against Alm, Kane, Rogers & Co. (Alm Kane), a Chicago, Illinois broker-dealer, and Lee Korhumel, a registered representative working part-time with Alm Kane. The respondents consented to the issuance of the Commission's Order Instituting Proceedings containing findings and imposing remedial sanctions, without admitting or denying the facts or findings set forth in the Order.

The Commission finds that Lee Korhumel wilfully violated Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder in that he recommended that his customers purchase shares of common stock of United Financial Corporation of California (UFL) when he was in possession of material, non-public information concerning the interest of National Steel Corp. in acquiring UFL. The Commission also finds that Alm Kane failed to reasonably supervise Lee Korhumel and others with a view toward preventing violations of such provisions.

Alm Kane was censured by the Commission and agreed to undertake a review of its compliance procedures. Lee Korhumel was censured by the Commission and was suspended from association with any broker or dealer for sixty days. (Rel. 34-16639)

CONCEPT RELEASE ON THE RATIO OF EARNINGS
TO FIXED CHARGES

On March 5 the Commission approved the issuance of a concept release which requests comments on whether to retain the historical and pro forma ratios of earnings to fixed charges presently required in certain registration statements filed with the Commission, as well as on specified concerns with the calculation of the ratios where retention is recommended. The Commission is not at this time proposing any amendments to the present requirements, but rather wishes to elicit comments to assist in the development of possible future rulemaking proposals. Comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol St., Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before May 15, 1980, and should refer to File No. S7-824. (Rel. 33-6196)

TRADING SUSPENSIONS

TRADING SUSPENDED IN OLYMPIC GAS & OIL, INC.
AND SNG & OIL ENERGY CO.

The Commission announced the single ten day suspension of exchange and over-the-counter trading in the securities of Olympic Gas & Oil, Inc., a Washington corporation located in Seattle, Washington, and SNG & Oil Energy Company, a Delaware corporation located in Buffalo, New York, for the period beginning on March 10 and terminating at midnight (EST) on March 19, 1980. The Commission ordered the suspension of trading in Olympic's and SNG's securities because of questions concerning the recent unusual and unexplained market activity in the securities of the companies and because of the lack of adequate and accurate public information about the companies' operations and financial condition with respect to their methods of recognizing revenues and expenses and valuation of assets. (Rel. 34-16636)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

UNITED TECHNOLOGIES CORP. AGREES TO SETTLEMENT
OF INJUNCTIVE ACTION RE CARRIER TENDER OFFER

The Commission announced that the defendants in a civil enforcement action filed on June 25, 1979, United Technologies Corporation (United) and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Carrier Corporation (formerly United Technologies Holding Corporation), have entered into a settlement with the Commission. The complaint alleged that United violated the tender offer and beneficial ownership reporting provisions of the Williams Acts in connection with a 1978 tender offer for Carrier securities, which were at that time listed for trading on the New York Stock Exchange. The complaint charged that United discovered, after the conclusion of the tender offer, that fewer Carrier shares than it had previously announced had been tendered during the tender offer, and that, prior to publicly disclosing this fact, United purchased sufficient shares of Carrier to insure its control over Carrier and otherwise to compensate for the shortfall. The complaint charged that these actions were contrary to the terms of the United tender offer.

The settlement, which has been approved by Judge Henry F. Werker, provides for the payment of more than $1.1 million by the defendants to persons tendering Carrier stock to United in the tender offer. This is the amount United has stated it saved by purchasing shares in the open market rather than at the tender offer price. This payment will be distributed pursuant to a stipulation and agreement of compromise and settlement entered into by United in connection with the settlement of private class action litigation initiated after the Commission's investigation into United's tender offer for Carrier had become public. United has also filed a report with the Commission as a matter of public record describing certain events arising out of its tender offer for Carrier. United's report also sets forth procedures adopted by United in order to avoid a repetition of problems encountered in the Carrier tender offer in future tender offers. (SEC v. United Technologies Corp., et al., 79 Civ. 6193 HEW S.D.N.Y.). (LR-9031)

WILLIAM S. FLEISS CENSURED FOR INSIDER TRADING AND RECORDKEEPING VIOLATIONS

The Commission entered an order instituting administrative proceedings, making findings, and imposing remedial sanctions against William S. Fleiss, a registered representative in a branch office of Shearson Loeb Rhoades, Inc. The Commission in the order found that Fleiss wilfully violated the antifraud provisions and wilfully aided and abetted violations of the recordkeeping provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and rules thereunder. After deducing that one of his clients was buying the securities of companies that might be candidates for so-called sale of assets transactions, Fleiss purchased and solicited customers to purchase the securities and advised other clients of trading in the first client's account. The Commission also found that Fleiss marked order tickets for solicited transactions as unsolicited and failed to note the exercise of discretion on order tickets. Fleiss was censured and ordered to comply with various undertakings relating to the execution of transactions with customers and trading for his own account and the making of recommendations for securities transactions to customers, and the maintenance of records of customer transactions. (Rel. 34-16642)

TRADING SUSPENDED IN MCDOWELL ENTERPRISES, INC.

The Commission announced the single ten-day suspension of exchange and over-the-counter trading in the securities of McDowell Enterprises, Inc., a Tennessee corporation located in Nashville, Tennessee, for the period beginning on March 11 and terminating at midnight (EST) on March 20, 1980. The Commission ordered the suspension because of questions which have been raised concerning an undisclosed accumulation of a significant block of the company's outstanding common stock by an undisclosed group of investors and unexplained market activity in the company's common stock. (Rel. 34-16643)

NEW ORLEANS PUBLIC SERVICE INC.

An order has been issued regarding Middle South Utilities, Inc. and its subsidiary, New Orleans Public Service Inc. (NOPSI), authorizing NOPSI to issue and sell to Middle South 1,000,000 shares of additional common stock at an aggregate cash purchase price of $10 million and also to sell at competitive bidding up to 150,000 shares of a new series of its preferred stock, $100 par value per share. NOPSI intends to apply the net proceeds derived from the issuance and sale of such securities to the payment of short-term borrowings, estimated to total $4 million at the time of the sale of the new preferred stock, and to the financing in part of NOPSI's 1980 construction program, which provides for expenditures of approximately $30,400,000. (Rel. 35-21472 - Mar. 10)

FORM S-18 MONITORING REPORT RELEASED

Form S-18, a new, short form registration statement, adopted on an experimental basis in an effort to facilitate access to the securities markets by smaller companies, was used to raise some $45 million in capital through initial public offerings the first eight months it was effective, according to a Commission staff report recently released. The monitoring report on use of Form S-18, prepared by the Commission's Directorate of Economic and Policy Research, found that the new form has largely displaced the traditional, Form S-1 for the registration of smaller initial offerings of common stock.

Form S-18 was adopted by the Commission in April 1979 as one of a series of initiatives designed to facilitate capital formation by smaller businesses. The Commission's efforts in this area result from the 1977 recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Corporate Disclosure, as well as from the extensive hearings which the Commission held to examine problems experienced by small businesses as a result of the Federal securities laws. The Report is responsive to another of the Advisory Committee's recommendations and to a commitment the Commission made at the time it adopted Form S-18, to monitor closely the use of the new registration form. The Report examines the record of Form S-18 use during 1979 and compares key aspects with a sample of Form S-1 issuers.

Copies of the Report are available upon request from the Publications Section, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549. Comments or questions should be directed to Steven E. Levy, Director, Directorate of Economic and Policy Research (same mailing address as above, telephone 202-272-2850).

FILES ON CORPORATE PAYMENTS MADE PUBLIC

The Commission, pursuant to requests under the Freedom of Information Act, has made available to the public certain previously non-public files in its possession relating to questionable corporate payments. Files concerning the following corporations will be made available beginning today: Carson Pirie Scott Co., GAF Corp., Speizman Industries, Eaton Corp., Twentieth Century Fox Corp. and Missouri Public Service (additional material). These files, and others made available previously, may be inspected at the Commission's Public Reference Room, Room 6101, 1100 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Persons wishing further information may call the Public Reference Room at (202) 523-5360.

TABULATIONS OF QUARTERLY INVESTMENT MANAGER REPORTS AVAILABLE

The Commission has announced that tabulations of the reports filed under the institutional investment manager program for the calendar quarter ending December 31, 1979, are now available. These reports, filed under Section 13(f) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by institutional investment managers, list securities over which the manager exercises investment discretion. There are two tabulations: (1) a listing, arranged according to individual security, showing how many shares of that security are managed by each investment manager; and (2) an abbreviated listing, also arranged according to individual security, showing how many shares of that security are managed by each category of investment manager. These tabulations are available for public inspection and copying in the Commission's Public Reference Room located at 1100 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

FINAL ORDER AND JUDGMENT ENTERED AGAINST SUMMA CORPORATION, OTHERS

The Commission announced that on March 11 Judge Alfonso J. Zirpoli of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California entered the Final Order and Judgment against Summa Corporation, Hughes Air Corp., and the Administrators of the Estate of Howard R. Hughes. A sum in excess of $40 million has been disgorged and, pursuant to settlements in related private actions, is being distributed to former Air West stockholders. This is the largest recovery ever obtained in a Commission-related action.

Only one defendant remains in the action, Hughes' former counsel Chester C. Davis. Trial of the charges against Davis, including fraud, stock manipulation and violation of proxy provisions, is set for May 19 in San Francisco. (SEC v. William R. Lummis, et al., As Administrators of the Estate of Howard R. Hughes, Jr., et al., U.S.D.C. N.D. Cal., Civil Action No. 75-0589 AJZ). (LR-9032)

FIRST MULTIFUND ADVISORY CORP., OTHERS

The Commission has ordered public administrative proceedings, pursuant to Section 9(b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, against First Multifund Advisory Corp., Milton Mound, James F. Bender, Kurt I. Lewin, M. Lester Mendell, I.I. Rabi, Robert G. Stephens, Jr., Elliott B. Strauss, Aaron W. Warner and Norman D. Waters.

The proceedings are based upon allegations by the Commission's staff that the respondents violated antifraud, reporting, and other provisions of the securities laws in the activities of First Multifund for Daily Income, Inc. (FMDI) and First Multifund of America, Inc. (FMA). Prior to reorganizations which took place in 1979, FMDI was an open-end investment company which invested primarily in certificates of deposit issued by commercial banks, while FMA was an open-end investment company which invested in shares of other investment companies. Milton Mound, through First Multifund Advisory Corp., acted as investment adviser to and broker-dealer for both FMDI and FMA from their inception until 1979. The remaining respondents were directors of FMDI and FMA between 1974 and 1979.

With respect to FMDI, the Order alleges that the respondents improperly valued long-term certificates of deposit in FMDI's portfolio according to the amortized cost method of valuation. The Order further alleges that, as rising interest rates caused the fair market value of the securities in FMDI's portfolio to decline, the respondents' use of the amortized cost method of valuation resulted in overstatements of the fund's net asset value. In December 1979, FMDI liquidated its entire portfolio at a loss and reduced its net asset value per share from $1.00 to $.94.

With respect to FMA, the Order alleges that the advisory corporation and Mound adopted an investment strategy which caused that fund to engage in excessive portfolio transactions.

The Order further alleges that both FMA and FMDI filed registration statements and other disclosure documents which misrepresented or failed to disclose material facts concerning their operations.

A hearing will be scheduled to take evidence on the allegations of the staff and to afford the respondents an opportunity to present any defenses they may have. The purpose of the hearing is to determine whether the allegations are true and, if so, what if any remedial action would be appropriate.

At the same time that it ordered public administrative proceedings, the Commission accepted offers of settlement from Paul Buchbaum, formerly vice-president and treasurer of First Multifund Advisory Corp., and S. Jay Levy, a director of FMDI and FMA. Mr. Buchbaum was barred for a period of eighteen months from acting as an employee, officer or director of an investment adviser, registered investment company or broker-dealer and ordered to thereafter comply with his undertaking not to serve in an unsupervised capacity for any investment adviser or registered investment company for a period of three years. Mr. Levy was censured and ordered to comply with his undertaking that he shall not serve as an officer or director of a registered investment company for one year. (Rel. 34-11064)

APPLICATION OF RULE 10b-6 TO PURCHASES PURSUANT TO CERTAIN TENDER OFFERS

The Commission is adopting an amendment to Rule 10b-6 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 excepting from that Rule purchases of securities pursuant to a tender offer by an issuer or an affiliate of such issuer for securities of the issuer which is subject to and made in compliance with Rule 13e-4 where the issuer or affiliate making such offer is subject to Rule 10b-6 solely because the issuer has outstanding securities convertible into or exchangeable for the security for which the tender offer will be made (subject security). The exception also will apply to purchases pursuant to a tender offer by an affiliate for the issuer's securities where the tender offer is subject to and made in compliance with Section 14(d) [15 U.S.C. § 78n(d)] and the rules thereunder. The Commission believes that adequate safeguards exist in the context of such offers and that additional regulation under Rule 10b-6 is not necessary. (Rel. 33-6197)

APPLICATION OF RULE 10b-6 TO CERTAIN DISTRIBUTIONS OF SECURITIES BY ISSUERS

The Commission is proposing for comment amendments to Rule 10b-6 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 which would except from the application of Rule 10b-6 distributions of securities pursuant to employee or shareholder plans sponsored by an issuer. The Commission believes that such distributions generally do not appear to present the potential for the manipulative abuse Rule 10b-6 was designed to prohibit. Comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Room 892, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549, on or before April 30 and should refer to File No. S7-826. All submissions will be available for public inspection. (Rel. 33-6198)

REPORT SHOWS KEY CAPITAL FORMATION ROLE
FOR REGIONAL BROKER-DEALERS

Regional broker-dealers play a key role in helping companies -- particularly smaller ones -- to enter the public capital markets for the first time, according to the results of a study by the Commission's staff, made public today.

The study presents comprehensive data, not previously available, on the role which regional broker-dealers play in the capital formation process. Prepared by the Commission's Directorate of Economic and Policy Research, it is the product of the first phase of a research project sponsored jointly by the Commission and the Office of the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration.

The report shows that some three-quarters of the initial offerings of common stock offered to investors between January 1, 1972 and June 30, 1979, were managed by regional broker-dealers. During the same period, regional firms managed 91 percent of the initial public offerings by smaller companies -- those with annual revenues of less than $10 million.

Phase II of the project will examine evidence of a relationship between the decline in the number of initial public offerings, and changes in the structure of the securities industry. Further research under the joint, SEC-SBA agreement will examine the Phase I data in detail and extend the analysis of the capital formation role of regional broker-dealers to include their research and market-making activities.

G.I.

Copies of the report are available upon request from the Publications Section, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. Comments or questions should be directed to Steven E. Levy, Director, Directorate of Economic and Policy Research (same mailing address as above, telephone 202-272-2850).

DONALD PHELPS MATHESON CITED

The Commission has instituted public administrative proceedings against Donald Phelps Matheson, doing business as Don P. Matheson & Company, a dually registered investment adviser and broker-dealer located in Grand Rapids, Michigan. The proceedings are based on allegations by the staff that Matheson wilfully violated (1) the antifraud and recordkeeping provisions of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, and (2) the Special Reserve Bank Account, debt-equity, and recordkeeping provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 applicable to registered broker-dealers.

Simultaneously with the institution of the proceedings the Commission accepted Matheson's offer of settlement and entered an order suspending Matheson & Company from conducting business as an investment adviser or broker-dealer and Matheson from associating with any investment adviser or broker-dealer for a period of 45 days and directing Matheson to comply with an undertaking to file a notice of his withdrawal from registration as an investment adviser and broker-dealer following the expiration of the suspension period. (Rel. 34-16640)

SANCTIONS IMPOSED AGAINST W. A. PATTERSON, INC., OTHERS

The Commission has ordered that the broker-dealer registration of W. A. Patterson, Inc., headquartered in Albuquerque, New Mexico, be revoked; that William A. Patterson, of Albuquerque, be barred from association with any broker-dealer, investment company, investment adviser or transfer agent, provided that after the expiration of two years he may apply to be associated as a supervised employee in a non-supervisory capacity; and that Jack M. Kekich, also of Albuquerque, be suspended from association with any broker-dealer, investment company, investment adviser or transfer agent for a period of 60 days, and that he thereafter be suspended for 30 days from such association, other than as a supervised employee in a non-supervisory capacity.

The sanctions were based upon findings that W. A. Patterson, Inc., William A. Patterson and Jack M. Kekich wilfully violated and wilfully aided and abetted violations of the broker-dealer books and records requirements, net capital requirements, the margin and the supervision requirements of the securities laws. The respondents consented to the order without admitting or denying the findings. (Rel. 34-16641)

AEGEAN INDUSTRIES, INC., OTHERS ENJOINED

The New York Regional Office announced that on February 20 Aegean Industries, Inc., Stanley J. Sanders and Vincent Fava were permanently enjoined, upon consent, from violating the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws.

In addition, pursuant to an order of disgorgement, Sanders consented to pay $50,000 and Fava consented to pay $5,000, to a Special Escrow Agent, who is to hold such monies for the benefit of Aegean and its shareholders. The monies are to be distributed pursuant to a plan of distribution, which plan is to be prepared by the Special Escrow Agent, and to be proposed within ninety days after entry of the judgment for consideration by the court. (SEC v. Aegean Industries, Inc., et al., 80 Civil 843, S.D.N.Y. [C.S.H.]). (LR-9036)

ROY E. STEPHENS ENJOINED

The Atlanta Regional Office announced that on March 6 the Federal Court in Atlanta, Georgia permanently enjoined Roy E. Stephens of Atlanta from violations of the antifraud provisions and from aiding and abetting violations of the reporting and proxy provisions of the securities laws in connection with filings made with the Commission on behalf of General Resources Corporation and Atla National Investments Corporation. Stephens consented to the entry of the court's order without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint.

The complaint, which was filed on October 31, 1979 and named six individual and ten corporate defendants, alleged, among other things, that Stephens and the individual defendants embarked on an acquisition program to acquire companies with substantial liquid assets, such as insurance companies, which assets were then used to sustain the operation of insolvent and nearly insolvent companies through a complex series of inter-company transactions in which cash was exchanged for mortgages and other property of dubious value. Stephens, an officer and director of General Resources, was alleged to have violated the antifraud provisions and to have aided and abetted violations of the proxy and reporting provisions of the securities laws. The other defendants consented to the relief requested at the time of the filing of the complaint. (SEC v. General Resources Corporation, et al., U.S.D.C. N.D. Ga., C-79-2026A). (LR-9037)

NASD ACTION AGAINST DAVID R. LODGE AFFIRMED

The Commission has affirmed sanctions imposed by the NASD on David R. Lodge of Boston. During the relevant period, Lodge was a registered principal of Continental Equities, Inc. of Detroit, formerly a member firm of the NASD. The NASD censured Lodge and suspended him for ten business days from association with any member in any capacity.

The Commission found, as had the NASD, that, in March and July of 1975, Lodge, without authorization, withdrew funds from trading accounts maintained by Continental at another firm. The Commission also affirmed the NASD's finding that Lodge failed to inform Continental of transactions and withdrawals in those accounts promptly, thus impairing Continental's ability to ascertain at any given time whether it was in compliance with net capital requirements. (Rel. 34-16637)

NASD ACTION AGAINST TODD AND COMPANY, INC. AND THOMAS K. LANGBEIN ON REMAND AFFIRMED

The Commission has affirmed sanctions imposed by the NASD on Todd and Company, Inc., a Carlstadt, New Jersey brokerage firm, and Thomas K. Langbein, its president. The NASD censured applicants; fined them $10,000; prohibited the firm for 30 days from engaging in underwritings and acting as an NASDAQ marketmaker, while allowing it to handle retail orders during such period only if no commissions, markups or markdowns are charged; and suspended Langbein 30 days from being associated with any NASD member.

In 1976, the Commission had affirmed the NASD's finding that, in 1972, Todd and Langbein manipulated the market for the common stock of Automated Medical Laboratories, Inc. That finding was also affirmed by the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. However, due to a procedural error by the NASD, the Court determined that the case must be remanded to the Association for a redetermination of the sanctions imposed.

On remand, the NASD substantially reduced the sanctions against applicants. In light of that action, and in view of the serious misconduct in which applicants had engaged, the Commission concluded that no further reduction in sanctions was warranted. (Rel. 34-16638)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

ACTIONS NAMING INVESTMENT INFORMATION, INC. OTHERS, ANNOUNCED

The Commission has announced a series of related actions, all of which involved an arrangement under which money-managers utilized a portion of the brokerage commissions paid by their clients in order to purchase, through a third party, goods and services for their own use.

All of the actions announced stem from an arrangement offered by a Dallas, Texas firm, Investment Information, Inc. (III), and its president and majority stockholder, Frederick P. Oman. These actions consisted of the following:

- -- a complaint against III and Oman filed in U.S. District Court in Washington D.C. and Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction, to which III and Oman consented;
- -- a Report of Investigation pursuant to Section 21(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, detailing the conduct of seven investment advisers, five banks and 12 broker-dealers, all of whom undertook to take remedial actions. The investment advisers and banks agreed to make certain payments to their clients and the brokers agreed to reduce commissions on certain transactions for a period of time.

-- complaints, filed in U.S. District Court in New Jersey and Wisconsin, against two banks, American National Bank & Trust of New Jersey and Security First National Bank in Sheboygan, which the defendants are contesting.

The Commission said that III brought money managers -- investment advisers and bank trust departments -- together with participating broker-dealers. The money managers directed transactions in behalf of their clients to the brokers. The brokers then remitted 50 percent of the commissions to III, which used a majority of the money to pay for goods and services purchased elsewhere by the money managers. Some $11.7 million in commissions were paid under this arrangement between January 1973 and June 1978, with about half -- $5.8 million -- remitted to III for the credit of the money managers' accounts. III retained a fee of between 10 and 17 percent of the gross commissions paid. (SEC v. Investment Information, Inc., et al., U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil Action No. 80-0701; SEC v. American National Bank & Trust of New Jersey, U.S.D.C. D.N.J., Civil Action No. 80-745; Security First National Bank in Sheboygan, U.S.D.C. E.D.Wis., Civil Action No. 80C-264). (LR-9039)

COMPLAINT VOLUNTARILY DISMISSED

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on March 7 the Honorable Marvin E. Aspen, Judge of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, accepted a stipulation of dismissal in SEC v. Price & Company, et al. The stipulation was agreed to by all the parties therein, and provided for a voluntary dismissal of the action pursuant to Rule 41 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The Commission's complaint had sought, inter alia, a court order directing the defendants to make Price and Company's books and records available for examination by the Commission's staff. Prior to the submission of the stipulation to the Court, the defendants took steps which would permit representatives of the Commission to review Price and Company's books and records. (SEC v. Price & Company, et al., U.S.D.C. N.D. Ill., Eastern Division, Civil Action No. 80-C-269). (LR-9038)

TEMPLET INDUSTRIES, INC. ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on March 19 the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia enjoined Templet Industries, Inc. of Nutley, New Jersey, from failing to timely file periodic reports with the Commission and ordered it to comply with certain undertakings. The Commission's complaint, filed on January 30, 1980, alleged that Templet failed to timely file certain annual and quarterly reports as part of a continuing course of conduct extending over several years. Templet, in consenting to entry of judgment against it, admitted failure to file reports on a timely basis on 12 separate occasions. (SEC v. Templet Industries, Inc., U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil Action No. 80-0234). (LR-9040)

TRADING SUSPENDED IN MCDOWELL ENTERPRISES, INC.

The Commission announced a ten-day suspension of exchange and over-the-counter trading in the securities of McDowell Enterprises, Inc., a Tennessee corporation located in Nashville, Tennessee, for the period beginning on March 20 and terminating at midnight (EST) on March 30, 1980. The Commission on March 11, 1980 ordered a suspension of trading in McDowell securities, which will expire at midnight March 20, 1980 [See Rel. 34-16643 - March 20, 1980]. At that time, the Commission announced its concerns about an undisclosed accumulation of a block of McDowell stock by an undisclosed group of investors and unexplained trading in McDowell stock.

The Commission ordered the second suspension of trading in McDowell's securities as a result of serious additional and separate questions which have been raised concerning the possible impact upon the trading market of the stock of McDowell due to the availability for sale of a substantial block of such stock resulting from a failure by customers to meet margin calls. Information has been provided to the Commission that customers of a broker-dealer have been requested by the broker-dealer to make full payment for the shares of McDowell in their accounts and that customers owning approximately 500,000 shares of McDowell are currently unable to make such payment. The sale of such McDowell shares representing approximately 21% of the market in McDowell stock would result in an extreme disruption to the trading market in McDowell stock. The suspension of trading also was ordered because the Commission, as well as the American Stock Exchange, believes that a fair and orderly market in the securities could not otherwise be maintained and that a suspension was required to permit plans to be made for the commencement of an orderly trading market in the securities. (Rel. 34-16682)

RELIANCE MORTGAGE CORPORATION AND EUGENE J. CAHILL ENJOINED

The Denver Regional Office announced that on March 11 a final judgment of permanent injunction was issued against Reliance Mortgage Corporation, a Colorado corporation, and Eugene J. Cahill, a resident of Colorado, by the Honorable John L. Kane, Jr., U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado, enjoining the defendants from violating the antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The defendants consented to the final judgment of permanent injunction without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint.

The Commission's complaint, which was filed on March 10, 1980, alleged, among other things, that the defendants engaged in a course of business wherein they made false statements to securities dealers, in connection with the purchase of Government National Mortgage Association (GNMA) pass-through certificates or commitments which relate to GNMA's to the effect that (a) Reliance is net short or has an equal number of short commitments to offset its long commitments in the GNMA forward market; (b) Reliance has adequate Federal National Mortgage Association (FNMA) commitments to offset its long commitments in the GNMA forward market; (c) Reliance is "speculating" only with a few securities dealers; and (d) Reliance is ready and able to meet its existing financial commitments and proposed commitments. (SEC v. Reliance Mortgage Corporation and Eugene J. Cahill, USDC, Dist. of Colorado, Civil Action No. 80-312). (LR-9041)

COMPLAINT NAMES PHILIP R. COHN AND DAVID E. LYON

The Boston Regional Office announced that on March 12 a complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts naming Philip R. Cohn and David E. Lyon, both of Longmeadow, Massachusetts, as defendants. The Commission, in its complaint and supporting papers, seeks a temporary restraining order, as well as preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The Commission's papers also request a temporary order freezing the assets of the defendants as well as an order for an accounting from the defendants.

The Commission's complaint and supporting papers allege that since on or about March 1, 1976 to the present, Cohn singly and jointly with Lyon offered for sale and sold over $8 million in unregistered securities in the form of evidences of indebtedness and "buy back" agreements and promissory notes in connection with certain real estate transactions, as well as investment contracts in the form of interests and participations in multi-family housing projects. The securities were offered and sold in Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, and New Jersey, as well as other jurisdictions. (SEC v. Philip R. Cohn and David E. Lyon, Civil Action No. 80-0052-F). TRADING SUSPENSIONS

TRADING SUSPENDED IN LILAC, INC.

The Commission announced the single ten day suspension of exchange and over-the-counter trading in the securities of Lilac, Inc., a Minnesota corporation located in Bloomington, Minnesota, for the period beginning on March 25 and terminating at midnight (EST) on April 3, 1980. The Commission suspended trading in the securities of Lilac in view of the recent unusual and unexplained price rise and market activity in that security between March 3 and March 17, 1980, when the price of Lilac's securities increased from 10 cents asked per share to $1.88 per share. During that period, there was no publicly available information which would appear to justify this market activity inasmuch as a recent Lilac financial statement indicates that it has no assets, no liabilities and no ongoing business operations. (Rel. 34-16692)

Penn Pacific, in consenting to the entry of judgment against it, admitted failure to file reports on a timely basis on 5 separate occasions. (SEC v. Penn Pacific Corporation, U.S.D.C. CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

COM/LINK INTERNATIONAL CORPORATION AND
FRANK J. LANDI ENJOINED

The New York Regional Office announced that on February 13 the Honorable Thomas P. Griesa, U.S. District Judge for the Southern District of New York, signed a Judgment of Permanent Injunction by Consent and Order for other Relief against Com/Link International Corporation and its president Frank J. Landi, both of New Rochelle, New York, enjoining them from violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws and, inter alia, requiring the company to file for bankruptcy in 90 days unless it can demonstrate good cause why it should not be required to do so. (SEC v. Com/Link International Corporation, et al., 79 Civil 5337 [TPG] [S.D.N.Y.]). (LR-9046)

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

RUSSELL REED, OTHERS CONVICTED

The New York Regional Office announced that on March 13 a jury, before the Honorable George C. Pratt, U.S. District Judge for the Eastern District of New York, returned a verdict of guilty against Russell Reed, also known as Stephen Whitney, of Clinton Corners, New York, James S. Doyle, of Brentwood, New York, and Thomas Francis Ryan, of Kings Park, New York, on all five counts of an indictment which charged violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws and the mail fraud statute, along with conspiracy to violate the above-mentioned statutes. A sentencing date has not been set.

Reed did not appear at the trial and was convicted in absentia. A warrant for his arrest has been issued by the U.S. Attorney's Office. Doyle and Ryan have indicated that they will appeal the jury's verdict. Reed, Doyle, and Ryan were each found guilty of conspiracy, securities fraud, and mail fraud in connection with the purchase of approximately $2 million in securities in three brokerage accounts, between August and October 1978, at the Huntington, New York branch office of Shearson Hayden Stone, Inc, (now known as Shearson Loeb Rhoades, Inc.), where Doyle and Ryan were then employed. Reed paid for these securities with checks drawn on out-of-state and foreign bank accounts where he had insufficient funds to pay the stated amounts, resulting in a loss to Shearson when the accounts were eventually liquidated.

In a related Commission civil injunctive action, Final Judgments of Permanent Injunction by Consent were issued by the Honorable Henry F. Werker against Reed, Doyle and Ryan in SEC v. Russell Reed, et al., 78 Civil 5581 (S.D.N.Y.). (U.S. v. Russell Reed, aka "Stephen Whitney", et al., E.D.N.Y., 79 Crim. 515[S]). (LR-9045)

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION ON THE EFFECTS OF CHANGING PRICES

The Commission announced the publication for comment of proposed amendments to Regulation S-K and to various registration forms which would require that certain companies include supplementary information on the effects of changing prices in filings with the Commission. The required information would consist of the disclosures specified by FASB Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 33, "Financial Reporting and Changing Prices." A safe harbor provision would be extended to these disclosures. Interested persons should submit their comments in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549, on or before May 30 and should refer to File No. S7-827. All submissions will be available for public inspection at the Commission's Public Reference Room. (Rel. 33-6201)

DAVID R. CRAIG CITED

The Commission has instituted administrative proceedings against David R. Craig of Denver, Colorado and has suspended him for three months from being associated with any broker or dealer. The suspension was ordered pursuant to Craig's offer of settlement which was submitted in anticipation of the proceedings and in which, without admitting or denying the allegations against him, Craig consented to findings that he violated registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer and sale of the common stock of Weenie Machine International during 1978. (Rel. 34-16666)

NASD ACTIONS AGAINST HOWARD D. GATLIFF AND EARL MARTINSON REMANDED

The SEC has remanded to the NASD disciplinary proceedings against Howard D. Gatliff of Las Vegas, and Earl Martinson of Granada Hills, California.

The Commission found, as had the NASD, that in 1976 Gatliff and Martinson unlawfully sold the unregistered securities of various limited partnerships sponsored by Cal-Am Corporation, and failed to disclose to investors the extra compensation respondents had received for selling those securities. The Commission also affirmed the NASD's finding that Martinson failed to give the firm with which he was associated the required prior written notice of his sales.

The Commission concluded, however, that the proceedings against respondents should be remanded to the Association for reconsideration of the sanctions which the NASD had imposed. The NASD had fined Gatliff and Martinson $25,000 each, and barred them from association with any NASD member. The Commission stated that "a fuller explanation of the need for these sanctions (was) required."

The NASD also found that Gatliff had violated its rules by failing to respond to written requests for information. The Commission noted that Gatliff had not appeared at the NASD's hearings, and that the record was unclear as to whether or not he had received the NASD's requests. It stated that, on remand, the NASD might appropriately question Gatliff as to this matter. (Rel. 34-16680)

TRADING SUSPENDED IN MCDOWELL ENTERPRISES, INC.

The Commission announced a ten-day suspension of exchange and over-the-counter trading in the securities of McDowell Enterprises, Inc., a Tennessee corporation located in Nashville, Tennessee, for the period beginning on March 30 and terminating at midnight (EST) on April 9, 1980 unless sooner ordered by the Commission.

The Commission on March 11 ordered a ten day suspension of trading in McDowell securities to expire at midnight (EST) March 20 [See Rel. 34-16643/March 11, 1980]. At the time of the order, the Commission announced its concerns about an undisclosed accumulation of a block of McDowell stock by an undisclosed group of investors and unexplained trading in McDowell stock.

The Commission on March 20 ordered a ten day suspension of trading in McDowell securities which expired at midnight (EST) March 30 [See Rel. 34-16682/March 20, 1980]. In announcing that suspension, the Commission expressed concern over serious additional and separate questions concerning the possible disruptive impact on the trading market for McDowell securities resulting from the availability for sale of substantial block of such securities due to the failure of customers owning 500,000 shares of McDowell or 21% of the outstanding shares of McDowell to meet a margin call from their broker-dealer.

The Commission has ordered this ten day suspension in the securities of McDowell in view of a contemplated Commission enforcement action to be filed within the suspension period which will, among other things, involve a plan which will provide for the orderly disposition of approximately 500,000 shares of McDowell securities. Moreover, the Commission ordered the trading suspension at the request of McDowell in order that it enable the company to make disclosure and dissemination of information concerning its business operations.

The Commission notes that it may determine to terminate the suspension of trading in McDowell securities before the ten day suspension period expires, if appropriate. (Rel. 34-16704)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

COMMISSION CHARGES PATENT LAW FIRM AND OTHERS WITH INSIDER TRADING VIOLATIONS, OBTAINS DISGORGEMENT AND OTHER RELIEF

The Commission announced on April 2 the filing of a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia against the Westfield, New Jersey, patent law firm of Lerner, David, Littenberg & Samuel (LDL & S), Donald R. McGregor, Joel Silverman, Stanley Silverman, Irwin Sutton, Joseph Mezrahi and Solomon Tawil alleging violations of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act). Simultaneous with the filing of the complaint, the Court entered Consent Orders against the defendants which, among other things, require them to comply with the antifraud provisions of the Exchange Act. LDL & S and the other defendants each consented to the entry of the Court's Orders, without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint.

The Commission's complaint alleged that in May 1977, all of the partners and one associate at LDL & S and various members of their families, certain persons associated with clients of LDL & S and friends of members of LDL & S made substantial purchases of Refac Technology Development Corporation common stock while in possession of material, non-public information concerning the allowance by the U.S. Patent Office of certain principal claims in an application for the basic patent on the laser, being prosecuted by LDL & S under a joint royalty arrangement with Refac and the inventor of the laser. The complaint also charged that the other defendants each purchased Refac common stock after learning of the material, non-public information, directly or indirectly, from partners or associates of LDL & S. All of the transactions discussed in the complaint occurred prior to public dissemination of the information relating to the patent application and without disclosure of such information by the defendants.

In addition to the entry of the Court's Orders with respect to further violations, the defendants consented to and the Court ordered certain other equitable relief, including disgorgement of profits in the amount of $91,897. LDL & S further undertook to adopt, implement and maintain policies and procedures designed to prevent the use or dissemination of any material non-public information received by any member or employee of LDL & S by virtue of, or during the course of, their employment. The Statement of Policy and Procedures of LDL & S, adopted by LDL & S, was filed with the Court. (SEC v. Lerner, David, Littenberg & Samuel, et al., U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil Action No. 80-0845). RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

AMENDMENTS TO REGISTRATION STATEMENT FORM S-8 AND ANNUAL REPORT FORM 11-K

Cantin

NP

The Commission has adopted amendments to Securities Act of 1933 registration statement Form S-8 and to Securities Exchange Act of 1934 annual report Form 11-K. The purpose of the amendments is to make Form S-16 type of disclosure and up-dating features available to issuers with certain types of employee plans. Updating generally will be accomplished by means of filings made under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. (Rel. 33-6202)

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: William E. Toomey at (202) 272-2573

AMENDMENTS TO RULE 12b-25 ADOPTED

The Commission has adopted an amendment to Rule 12b-25 and its related form under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The amendment eliminates the extension of time application procedure, and, in lieu thereof, institutes a system requiring notification of the late filing of all or any required portion of annual reports on Forms 10-K, 11-K and 20-F and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q. In addition, the rule provides a relief procedure whereby a late annual or quarterly report will be deemed to be filed timely if certain conditions are met. (Rel. 33-6203)

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Bruce S. Mendelsohn at (202) 272-2589

REVISED PROCEDURES FOR PROCESSING POST-EFFECTIVE AMENDMENTS FILED BY INVESTMENT COMPANIES

The Commission has published for comment a proposed rule under the Securities Act of 1933 which would permit most post-effective amendments filed by open-end management investment companies and unit investment trusts, other than insurance company separate accounts, to become effective automatically without affirmative action on the part of the Commission or the staff. All comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before June 2 and should refer to File No. S7-829. (Rel. 33-6205)

COMPLAINT NAMES IRVING COHEN, OTHERS

The Commission announced on April 2 the filing of a civil injunctive action in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia seeking to enjoin Irving Cohen, a New York promoter of tax shelter investments, Halajen Mineral Development Corp., a company wholly owned by Cohen, and Mountainview Associates, Alpha Associates, Kentucky Coal Resources, Ltd., West Hills Associates, Sunnyhills Associates, and Sewanee Ridge Associates, six coal limited partnerships, from further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The Commission's action also seeks to enjoin Weiss Rosenthal & Schwartzman, P.C. (WRS), a New York law firm, as successor to Weiss Rosenthal Heller Schwartzman & Lazar, concerning conduct as counsel to the above-named defendants, from violations of the above-enumerated provisions. WRS simultaneously with the filing of this action entered into an Undertaking and Stipulation to be ordered by the Court, as described below.

The Commission's complaint alleges a scheme to defraud the public from September 1976 to the present through the sale of approximately $7,925,000 of unregistered securities, i.e., interests in the above-noted six defendant coal mining limited partnerships. Cohen created, managed and controlled these partnerships in his capacity as president of Halajen, the general partner to all the partnerships. Cohen, Halajen and the six coal limited partnerships represented to prospective investors that economic and tax benefits would accrue to purchasers of partnership interests. In fact, little, if any, mining has occurred on the partnerships' properties and the tax benefits represented to the purchasers may not have been available.

The Commission's complaint further alleges that WRS was retained by Cohen and Halajen, authored five of the six partnership offering memoranda and rendered the legal opinion contained therein. WRS, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint, for the propose of settling this matter, has agreed to an Undertaking and Stipulation to be ordered by the Court in which WRS undertakes that, in the future in acting as counsel with respect to tax shelter private offerings, its members, acting in their capacity as such, will take reasonable care to assure themselves: (1) that any offering circulars they prepare contain full and fair disclosure of all material facts and risks so that the offering document is not materially false and misleading; and (2) that any tax opinions they prepare will contain full and fair disclosure of all facts which bear upon the tax conclusions and that WRS will have a reasonable basis for relying upon the disclosed facts in issuing such tax opinions. Further, WRS will within 45 days adopt and maintain procedures to implement the above-described undertakings. (SEC v. Irving Cohen, et al., U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil Action No. 80-0853). (LR-9050)

(Registrant), a New Jersey corporation registered with the Commission as a broker-dealer. The Order for Proceedings also names Dennis S. Tinsky of Miami, Florida, and Hyman Sutnick of Monsey, New York, respectively Registrant's president, vice president, and its principal shareholders.

The proceedings are based on allegations by the Commission's staff that: (1) Registrant and Tinsky wilfully violated and aided and abetted violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, and Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, by making misstatements and omitting to state material facts to purchasers of the common stocks of Anglo American Properties, Inc. and Sunny Land Tours, Inc., traded in the over-the-counter market; and (2) Registrant wilfully violated, and Tinsky and Sutnick wilfully aided and abetted violations of certain bookkeeping, reporting and credit extension provisions of the Exchange Act, specifically, Sections 7(c), 15(b) and 17(a) of the Exchange Act, and Rules 15b3-1, 17a-3, and 17a-11 thereunder, and Regulation T promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The proceedings are also based on a final judgment of permanent injunction ordered, by consent, against Tinsky on January 23, 1979, enjoining him from further violations of the securities laws in SEC v. John P. Galanis, et al., 78 Civil 0259 (MEF) (S.D.N.Y. 1978).

A hearing will be scheduled by further order to take evidence on the staff's allegations and to afford the respondents an opportunity to offer any defenses thereto for the purpose of determining whether the allegations are true, and if so, what, if any, action of a remedial nature should be ordered by the Commission. (Rel. 34-16700)

SALOMON BROTHERS AND KENNETH LIPPER

An order has been issued granting exemption from Section 9(a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 to Salomon Brothers and Kenneth Lipper. The Commission, on February 15, had issued a notice (Rel. The Chicago Regional Office announced that on March 28 the Honorable John Powers Crowley enjoined Ralph Read, Howard Swiger, Russell Rabjohns, Jr., Jack Coulson, David Marose, and the Rose Packaging Corporation from violating the antifraud and other provisions of the securities laws. Read, Swiger, Coulson, Rabjohns, and others were recently convicted of criminal charges arising from the Cenco fraud.

The Commission's civil injunctive action is still pending against three former Cenco employees: Bernard Magdovitz, Brendan Casey, and Ronald Spiegel. (SEC v. Cenco, Inc., et al., N.D. Ill., Civil Action No. 76C 3258). (LR-9055)

AMARILLO INVESTMENTS, INC. AND DEAN EDWARD LIVELY CITED

Public administrative proceedings have been ordered pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against Amarillo Investments, Inc. (AII), a registered broker-dealer located in Amarillo, Texas, and Dean Edward Lively, also of Amarillo, AAI's chief executive officer. Simultaneous with the institution of the proceedings, the Commission approved Offers of Settlement submitted by AII and Lively in which they consented to the findings and sanctions described below without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations.

The Commission found that AII wilfully violated and that Lively wilfully aided and abetted violations of the broker-dealer recordkeeping, and net capital and other financial responsibility requirements of the Exchange Act. The Commission also found that AII and Lively wilfully violated the antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer and sale of certain real estate limited partnership interests, as well as the common stock of Amarillo Equity Investors, Inc.

Based upon the above, the Commission revoked AII's broker-dealer registration and suspended Lively from association with a broker or dealer, investment company or investment adviser for 180 days. In addition, the Commission barred Lively from acting in a supervisory or proprietary capacity for an additional two-year period following the 180-day suspension, provided, however, that after the expiration of such two-year period, he can apply to become associated in a supervisory or proprietary position. In addition, Lively was required to reimburse $12,576 to certain AII customers. (Rel. 34-16714)

Burke of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of New York entered a final judgment of permanent injunction against Page Airways, Inc. of Rochester, New York, enjoining it from violations of the reporting and proxy provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. In connection with the settlement, Page has undertaken to internally investigate matters alleged in the Commission's complaint and retain a Review Person to evaluate the methods and procedures followed in this investigation. Page has further undertaken to file a current report on Form 8-K concerning the internal investigation. Nothing in the settlement constitutes evidence of or an admission with respect to the allegations of the Commission's complaint. Moreover, the Commission stipulated to the dismissal of the action as to all individual defendants.

In reaching settlement of this action, the Commission and Page considered concerns raised by another agency of the United States Government regarding matters of national interest. (SEC v. Page Airways, Inc., et al., W.D.N.Y., Civil Action No. 78-831). (LR-9054)

The defendants consented to the entry of the order without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint which was filed on that same date. (SEC v. Since that time he has been Acting Assistant Regional Administrator (Corp. Reg.). Since joining the Commission's staff, Mr. Feller has been primarily engaged in representing the Commission in corporate reorganization proceedings under the Bankruptcy Act as well as enforcement matters arising under the Investment Company and Investment Advisers Acts.

ROGER BLANC APPOINTED ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR

Douglas Scarff, Director of the Division of Market Regulation, announced today that Chairman Harold M. Williams has appointed Roger D. Blanc to the position of Associate Director of the Division, in charge of the newly established office of Legal Policy and Trading Practices. Mr. Blanc's office will be responsible for interpretations and other legal and policy matters pertaining to the regulation of the securities markets and will also administer the Commission's trading practice programs and rules under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Mr. Blanc is a member of the New York bar. He graduated from Yale College in 1967 and the Columbia University School of Law in 1970. After practicing law in New York City following his graduation from law school, he joined the Commission staff in March 1974 as a staff attorney in the Division of Market Regulation. As the Division chief legal officer, he has played a key role in the implementation of the Securities Acts Amendments of 1975.

REGISTRATION OF POTOMAC INVESTMENT ADVISORS, LTD. REVOKED; PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT BARRED

The Commission has revoked the registration of Potomac Investment Advisors, Ltd., a McLean, Virginia investment adviser, and barred its president, Willard John Miller, and its vice president, John Scott Miller, Willard's son, from association with any investment adviser. After six months, however, John Miller may apply to become so associated in a non-supervisory position, upon an adequate showing of proper supervision.

Respondents did not dispute the findings of an administrative law judge that, from May 1974 to April 1978, Willard Miller converted clients' funds in Potomac's custody to cover losses on his personal securities transactions and to benefit other clients. Nor did respondents dispute the law judge's findings that they did not maintain required records with respect to accounts in which Potomac had custody of clients' funds or securities, and failed to comply with other recordkeeping requirements.

In affirming the sanctions imposed by the law judge on Potomac and Willard Miller, the Commission stated that "[t]here can be no justification for the deliberate misappropriation of clients' funds." In affirming the sanction imposed on John Miller, the Commission pointed out that, although he was aware of his father's misappropriation of clients' funds, he prepared quarterly statements sent to clients which falsely indicated that their funds were in Potomac's custody. (Rel. IA-716)

NASD ACTION AGAINST COOK & CO., INC. AND TWO OFFICERS SET ASIDE

The Commission has set aside disciplinary action taken by the NASD against Cook & Co., Inc., of Honolulu, L. Howard Cook, the firm's president, and Edmund C. H. Hyun, its vice president.

The NASD found that applicants had violated antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. According to the NASD, applicants were aware that, because of another broker-dealer's animosity towards Mr. Cook, it would not sell his firm certain hard-to-obtain bonds. Applicants therefore sought to purchase the bonds through nominee accounts. However, when the seller discovered the purchasers' true identities, it cancelled all of the purchases except one.

The Commission stated that, while there are situations in which concealment of a purchaser's true identity man constitute a material misstatement or omission, it was unable to conclude that a material deception had been practiced on the seller here. In its view, "personal prejudice does not fall within the protective net of Rule 10b-5." (Rel. 34-16705)

TRADING SUSPENDED IN OLYMPIC GAS & OIL, INC. AND SNG & OIL ENERGY COMPANY

The Commission announced the single ten-day suspension of exchange and over-the-counter trading in the securities of Olympic Gas & Oil, Inc., a Washington corporation located in Seattle, Washington and SNG & Oil Energy Company, a Delaware corporation located in Buffalo, New York, for the period beginning on April 11 and terminating at midnight on April 20, 1980.

The Commission ordered the suspension of trading in Olympic's and SNG's securities because of questions concerning the ownership of assets listed in the most recently published balance sheets of both companies. The Commission has learned that certain real estate constituting the majority of the reported assets of both companies was never conveyed to such companies notwithstanding representations to the contrary contained in filings of these companies with the Commission. The Commission has also been informed that questions have arisen with respect to the extent of gas, oil and mineral rights, if any, conveyed to Olympic. The Commission previously ordered a suspension of trading in Olympic's and SNG's securities from March 10, 1980 through March 19, 1980. The Commission ordered that suspension because of (1) unusual and unexplained market activity in the companies' securities and (2) questions concerning each companies' operations and financial condition with respect to the method of recognizing revenues and expenses and the valuation of assets. (Rel. 34-16738)

COMPLAINT NAMES JOSEPH F. SAIA AND AAA RECORDING STUDIOS, INC.

The Boston Regional Office announced that on April 3 a complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court at Boston, Massachusetts, seeking preliminary and permanent injunctions against Joseph F. Saia of Brockton, Massachusetts and AAA Recording Studios, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation of which Saia is president, located in Boston, Massachusetts, restraining them from future violations of Sections 5(a), 5(c) and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder.

The complaint alleged that the defendants violated the registration and antifraud provisions of the Securities Act and the antifraud provisions of the Exchange Act in connection with the sale of $735,000 of unregistered securities, in the form of limited partnership interests entered into by Saia with investors, to produce, tape and market television pilot shows. Sales were made to residents of Massachusetts, New York and Rhode Island. The complaint further alleged that the defendants made misrepresentations of material facts and omitted to state material facts concerning, among other things, the background and experience of Saia and AAA in the production, taping and successful marketing of television pilot shows; the use of proceeds received from investors; a guarantee that the television pilot shows would be sold; and the failure of Saia to have made previous sales of television pilot shows. (SEC v. Joseph F. Saia and AAA Recording Studios, Inc., D.C. Mass.). (LR-9601)

FINAL JUDGMENT ENTERED AGAINST EURRELL V. POTTS, OTHERS

The Commission announced that on April 9 the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia entered Final Judgments of Permanent Injunction against Eurrell V. Potts, Joe M. Cline & Associates, Inc., Evelyne P. Ragsdale and G.P. Rose and Co., Inc., all of Nashville, Tennessee, restraining and enjoining the defendants from further violations of the beneficial ownership provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. In addition, Potts and Cline Associates were also restrained and enjoined from further violations of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Exchange Act and the recordkeeping and transaction reporting provisions of the Exchange Act. The defendants consented to the entry of the Final Judgments, without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint, and to certain other equitable relief.

The Commission's complaint alleged that the defendants failed to make the required Schedule 13D filings with the Commission and in connection therewith, a group headed by Ragsdale consisting of as many as 17 shareholders, ultimately acquired approximately 534,190 shares or 22% of McDowell Enterprises, Inc.'s common stock out of the approximately 2,400,000 shares of McDowell common stock outstanding. Further, other customers of Cline Associates additionally acquired approximately 241,300 shares or 10% of McDowell common stock outstanding and officers and directors collectively owned approximately 1,294,772 shares or 54% of the outstanding common stock of McDowell. COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

STATEMENT PUBLISHED ON PURCHASE OF SALEM CORPORATION STOCK

The Commission today determined to issue a statement by G.L. Corporation, through its subsidiary, Refco-Consolidated, Inc., and Barry W. Blank. The statement was submitted to the Commission pursuant to Section 21(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in connection with a non-public inquiry by the staff of the Commission concerning the acquisition by Refco of approximately 27% of the outstanding common stock of Salem Corporation on January 17, 1978. According to the statement, Blank, then a vice president of a broker-dealer, solicited his customers to sell Salem stock from about 10:00 p.m. on January 16, 1978 through the following morning after receiving an order from a member of the Pritzker family, which owns G.L., to purchase 350,000 shares of the stock at $16 per share on behalf of Refco. Blank succeeded in contacting about 100 of his customers of which 68 decided to sell all or part of their Salem stock. Additional customers were solicited to sell by other registered representatives of Blank's firm and other brokerage firms. The statement, which notes concern expressed by members of the Commission's staff that the activities discussed in the letter may constitute a tender offer, discusses the circumstances of the acquisition. Refco, G.L. through Refco, and Blank made various undertakings with respect to their future conduct in the statement, including undertakings to take necessary steps to comply with the tender offer provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AND SANCTIONS IMPOSED AGAINST FIRST CITIZENS MUNICIPAL CORPORATION, OTHERS

The Commission announced that it has instituted public administrative proceedings and simultaneously accepted Offers of Settlement from First Citizens Municipal Corporation (Registrant), a broker-dealer located in Atlanta, Georgia, three officers, an employee, and 13 salesmen of the firm.

The proceedings arose out of the offer and sale by Registrant of industrial revenue bonds issued by a nursing home facility. The respondents were alleged to have violated or aided and abetted violations of the antifraud provisions of both the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in the omission and misrepresentation of material facts. Such facts concerned but were not limited to: (a) the financial condition of the issuer, (b) a purported guarantee by an affiliate of the issuer, (c) the risks associated with an investment in the securities, and (d) the significance of the different reimbursement practices respecting Medicaid and other third party payors.

The order imposing sanctions: (1) censured Registrant, (2) ordered Registrant to comply with its undertakings, including its undertaking to provide further training for each of its registered representatives, and its undertaking to have each of its registered representatives take the Series 7 Examination of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. The Commission ordered each of the individual respondents to be suspended from association with a broker-dealer or investment adviser for periods ranging from five to 22 days.

The respondents consented to the Commission's order without admitting or denying the Commission's findings. (Rel. 34-16725)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

DAVID T. MARANTETTE, III, SANCTIONED

The Commission announced the settlement of the public administrative proceedings against David T. Marantette, III, of Detroit, Michigan, a former officer and director of OTF Equities, Inc., a registered investment company. Based upon an offer of settlement in which Marantette neither admitted nor denied the allegations made against him, the Commission found that Marantette wilfully violated and wilfully aided and abetted violations of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and the rules thereunder relating to investments in contravention of policy and legal restriction, the custody of assets, the sale of property to the fund by an affiliated person of an affiliated person of the fund and disclosure in filings with the Commission and in proxy statements to shareholders. The Commission ordered that Marantette be permanently prohibited from serving or acting as an employee, officer, director, member of an advisory board, investment adviser for, depositor of, or principal underwriter for, a registered investment company or as an affiliated person of an investment adviser for a registered investment company, provided that after one year Marantette may apply to the Commission to serve or act in the enumerated capacities upon a prior showing that it will be consistent with the public interest. (Rel. 34-16724)

MICHAEL SUTTON WOLFE

The Commission has instituted public administrative proceedings, pursuant to Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, against Michael Sutton Wolfe of Vallejo, California. Wolfe, a former branch office manager and registered representative of Birr Wilson & Co., San Francisco, California, is alleged to have wilfully violated the securities laws by, among other things, misappropriating cash and securities from his clients.

A hearing will be scheduled by further order to take evidence on the staff's allegations and to afford the respondent an opportunity to offer any defenses thereto, concerning what remedial action, if any, should be ordered by the Commission. (Rel. 34-16733)

FILES ON CORPORATE PAYMENTS MADE PUBLIC

The Commission, pursuant to requests under the Freedom of Information Act, has made available to the public certain previously non-public files in its possession relating to questionable corporate payments. Files concerning the following corporations will be made available beginning today: American Air Filter Company, Inc., The Coca Cola Company, First Union Corporation, Harnischfeger Corporation, Sheldahl Inc., and The Southland Corporation. These files, and others made available previously, may be inspected at the Commission's Public Reference Room, Room 6101, 1100 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Persons wishing further information may call the Public Reference Room at (202) 523-5360.

TRADING SUSPENSIONS

TRADING SUSPENDED IN AMERICAN TECHNICAL RESOURCES, INC.

The Commission announced the temporary suspension of over-the-counter trading in the securities of American Technical Resources, Inc. (ATR), a Utah corporation located in Dallas, Texas, for the ten-day period beginning on April 16 and terminating at midnight (EST) on April 25, 1980. The Commission suspended trading at the request of the corporation which cited the recent unusual and unexplained market activity that involved the raise in the price of ATR stock from $.20 to $1.25 per share between December 1979 and mid-March 1980. During that period, there was no publicly available information which would have justified this market activity.

If any broker-dealer or other person has any information which may relate to this matter, the Division of Enforcement of the Commission should be telephoned at (212) 264-1607. (Rel. 34-16747)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

DANIEL R. HOAK ENJOINED

The San Francisco Branch Office announced that on April 3 the Honorable Edward Dean Price of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of California entered an Order of Permanent Injunction against Daniel R. Hoak of Clovis, California, enjoining him from further violation of the antifraud, proxy and reporting provisions of the securities laws. The Court also entered an order of equitable relief against Commercial International Corporation (CIC) of Selma, California, of which Hoak is Chairman and President, based upon violations of proxy and reporting requirements. The defendants consented to entry of the orders without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint.

The complaint alleges that between 1973 and 1978 Hoak personally received nearly $250,000 in improper payments in connection with sales of off-grade raisins made by Hoak on behalf of CIC. The complaint further charges both Hoak and CIC with violating proxy and reporting requirements by failing to disclose the improper payments during the period when they occurred.

In addition to enjoining Hoak, the Court ordered that CIC amend prior proxies and filings made with the Commission to disclose fully Hoak's receipt of payments, the investigation of such conduct, the impact of the payments of CIC's financial condition, and remedial steps undertaken in the matter. CIC is further ordered to attempt to insure that at least forty percent of its board of directors be composed of persons who are neither employees of CIC nor related to any corporate officers or directors, and that two thirds of its audit committee also be composed of such unaffiliated persons. Additionally, CIC is required to direct its outside auditors to report on the sufficiency of internal controls relating to the sale of off-grade raisins, which under the Court's order are to be the responsibility of a management committee not to include Hoak. PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

The Commission has announced the issuance of a release proposing for comment an amendment of the requirements for the filing of amendments to Schedule 13D in Rule 13d-2(a), which provides in general that an amendment is required whenever a material change occurs in the information relating to beneficial ownership set forth in Schedule 13D. The proposed amendment would delete an exception to those requirements for the acquisition of less than two percent during any twelve-month period. Comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before May 26 and should refer to File No. S7-831. All comments will be available for public inspection. (Rel. 33-6206)

This postponement will continue in effect until a final determination is reached on requiring reserve information in primary financial statements of oil and gas producers. The amendments also permit registrants to present the reserve disclosures as supplementary information outside the financial statements until the above determination is made. (Rel. 33-6207)

INITIAL DECISION REVOKES LOWE MANAGEMENT CORP.'S REGISTRATION, BARS CHRIS LOWE

Administrative Law Judge Max O. Regensteiner has issued an initial decision revoking the investment adviser registration of Lowe Management Corp. of New York City, and barring Chris L. Lowe, the firm's president and majority stockholder, from association with an investment adviser. The decision is subject to Commission review on petition of a party or on the Commission's own initiative.

According to the decision, the firm and Lowe withheld about $10,000 from a client for almost 1-1/2 years after he terminated his account with the firm and during that period made misrepresentations to him concerning the return of his funds. This conduct was held to violate antifraud provisions of the Investment Advisers Act. In addition, Lowe was convicted by New York State courts of larceny, misrepresentation and misappropriation, doing business as an investment adviser without state registration, and tampering with evidence. The firm's registration form on file with the Commission was not amended, as required, to disclose the convictions until the date of the hearing, some twenty months after the first of the convictions.

EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN PURCHASE OR SALE TRANSACTIONS BETWEEN A REGISTERED INVESTMENT COMPANY AND CERTAIN AFFILIATED PERSONS

The Commission today proposed for public comment an amendment to Rule 17a-7 under the Investment Company Act of 1940 which would expand the existing rule in two respects. First, the proposed amendment would extend the existing exemptive relief to include transactions between a registered investment company and any person which is an affiliated person of such company, or an affiliated person of such person, solely by virtue of having a common investment adviser, common officers and/or common directors, regardless of whether the affiliated person is a registered investment company. Second, the proposed amendment would exempt purchases or sales involving any security for which market quotations are readily available. Absent this amendment, such a transaction would be permissible only upon the issuance, pursuant to an application, of an exemptive order by the Commission. Comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before June 5 and should refer to File No. S7-832. All comments will be available for public inspection. (Rel. IC-11136)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

PERMANENT INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST TERRENCE C. MADDEN

The Washington Regional Office and the Philadelphia Branch Office announced that on April 2 Judge Vincent P. Biunno of the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey entered an Order for Final Judgment permanently enjoining Terrence C. Madden, a former officer, director and shareholder of Investors Economic Systems, Inc., from further violating and aiding and abetting violations of the registration, antifraud, customer protection and financial responsibility provisions of the securities laws in connection with the offer and sale of interests in limited partnerships or any other securities.

The entrance of the permanent injunction was in accordance with the opinion of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, filed on February 7, 1980, which mandated a reversal of the District Court's decision of December 13, 1978, which entered summary judgment against Madden but failed to issue the injunction requested by the Commission. (SEC v. Peter J. Bonastia, et al., D.N.J. 1978, Civil Action No. 78-496). (LR-9064)

The Undertaking and Order prohibits Mr. Johnston from, directly or indirectly, engaging in any purchase or acquisition of the securities of Washington Group, Incorporated, or of any issuer which files reports with the Commission and of which he is an officer or director or in which he holds ten percent or more of any class of outstanding securities (five percent or more if listed on the New York or American Stock Exchanges), on terms, or subject to any agreement, constituting a guarantee against loss in connection with such purchases or acquisitions, in violation of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

NASD ACTION AGAINST APEX FINANCIAL CORPORATION AND OFFICIALS AFFIRMED

The Commission has affirmed sanctions imposed by the NASD on Apex Financial Corporation, a Los Altos, California brokerage firm, Wayne H. Wernimont, the firm's president, and Charles B. Godfrey, a former vice president and compliance officer. The NASD censured applicants and fined each of them $3,750.

The Commission found, as had the NASD, that applicants shared responsibility for the firm's unlawful sale of unregistered securities. (Rel. 34-16749)

NASD SANCTIONS AGAINST LOWELL H. LISTROM CO., INC. AND LOWELL H. LISTROM REDUCED

The Commission has affirmed the NASD's imposition of censure on Lowell H. Listrom Co., Inc., of Kansas City, Missouri, and its president, Lowell H. Listrom. However, the Commission set aside the NASD's assessment of a $500 fine against applicants.

The Commission found, as had the NASD, that applicants prepared inaccurate computations of the firm's aggregate indebtedness and net capital, which caused the filing of inaccurate financial reports. The Commission also affirmed the NASD's findings that applicants inaccurately computed the balance required to be maintained in the firm's special reserve account for the benefit of customers, and failed to make proper reports of certain transactions to NASDAQ. However, the Commission set aside the NASD's finding that applicants' inaccurate computations resulted in deficiencies in the firm's special reserve account.

In reducing the sanctions imposed by the NASD, the Commission noted that, despite the inaccuracy of applicants' net capital computations, the firm's net capital was never deficient and its aggregate indebtedness never exceeded the prescribed limit. The Commission also noted that it had set aside the NASD's findings of deficiencies in the firm's special reserve account, and that applicants' records in the securities business were previously unblemished. (Rel. 34-16750)

TRADING SUSPENDED IN ITEL CORPORATION

The Commission announced the single ten-day suspension of exchange and over-the-counter trading in the securities of Itel Corporation, a Delaware corporation located in San Francisco, California, for the period beginning on April 25 and terminating at midnight on May 4, 1980. The Commission initiated the suspension of trading in the securities of Itel because of the lack of current adequate and accurate public information about the company's operations and financial condition in that Itel has failed to file with the Commission its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1979. (Rel. 34-16766)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

COMPLAINT NAMES CARDIFF INDUSTRIES, INC.

The Commission announced that on May 5 it filed in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia a civil injunctive action against Cardiff Industries, Inc. alleging violations of the reporting provisions of the securities laws and seeking a Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Relief.

The complaint alleges that Cardiff, as part of a continuing course of violative conduct, failed to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1979, required to have been filed with the Commission by March 30, 1980. The complaint requests that the Court order forthwith, with the Commission, its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1979. Further, the Commission requested that the Court enjoin Cardiff from further violations of the reporting provisions of the securities laws. (SEC v. RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO RULE 16b-3 CONCERNING STOCK OPTIONS

The Commission has announced the issuance of a release proposing the adoption of an amendment to Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that would exempt from the short-swing profit recovery provisions of Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act the use of stock by an officer or director as payment for the exercise of an employee stock option. In addition, the Commission is proposing to amend the caption for Rule 16b-3 to reflect the broadened coverage of the rule. Comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before June 9 and should refer to File No. S7-833. All comments will be available for public inspection. (Rel. 34-16770)

ACCOUNTANTS' LIABILITY UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933 FOR REPORTS ON CERTAIN UNAUDITED SUPPLEMENTARY FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The amendments, if adopted, would have the effect of excluding accountants from Section 11(a) liability for reports on unaudited supplementary information as to the effects of changing prices and as to oil and gas reserves. Comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before June 30 and should refer to File No. S7-834. NAME CHANGE ANNOUNCED FOR DIRECTORATE OF ECONOMIC AND POLICY RESEARCH

The new name more accurately reflects the Directorate's role in providing policy and economic analysis on an ongoing basis to the Commission and its divisions and offices.

TRADING SUSPENSIONS

TRADING SUSPENDED IN OCEANIA RESOURCES, INC.

The Commission has announced the temporary suspension of over-the-counter trading in the securities of Oceania Resources, Inc., formerly known as Pitchblende Properties, Inc., a Nevada corporation located in Los Angeles, California, for the ten-day period beginning on May 1 and terminating at midnight (EDT) on May 10, 1980.

The Commission suspended trading in the securities of Oceania in view of questions concerning recent market activity in its securities and because of the lack of current accurate and adequate information concerning the company's announced refinery project in the Fiji Islands, its potential drilling ventures and the status of the company's most recent audit.

If any broker-dealer or other person has any information which may relate to this matter, the Division of Enforcement of the Commission should be telephoned at (212) 264-1600. (Rel. 34-16773)

TELCO MARKETING SERVICES, INC. CONSENTS TO AN UNDERTAKING AND AN ORDER

The Commission announced that on April 30 the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois entered an Order against Telco Marketing Services, Inc. pursuant to which the Court retained jurisdiction over Telco and the action for the purpose of enforcing the Consent and Undertaking entered by Telco but not incorporated by reference into the Court's Order. The Commission's complaint alleged that Telco violated the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in connection with its tender offer for common stock of Outdoor Sports Industries, Inc. (OSI) by failing to properly state the purpose of the tender offer and its effect on the voting rights of tendering OSI shareholders. Provisions of the Consent and Undertaking affect the manner in which Telco may conduct a tender offer in which it solicits irrevocable proxies and requires certain disclosure of the settlement of the action which Telco might otherwise not be required to make. Telco entered into the Consent and Undertaking without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint which was filed on July 12, 1979. (SEC v. Telco Marketing Services, Inc., Civil Action No. 79-1827) (LR-9071)

The $200,000 shall be reduced by amounts paid to the private plaintiffs, exclusive of attorney's fees and court costs, in settlement of or awarded in these private plaintiff's lawsuits. (SEC v. GSC Enterprises, Inc., et al., N.D. Ill., Civil Action No. 78-C-915). (LR-9072)

MISCELLANEOUS

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF THE REGULATION A EXEMPTION OF ELECTRONIC CONTROL SYSTEMS, INC.

An order has been entered temporarily suspending the exemption of Electronic Control Systems, Inc. (ECS) under Regulation A. The order was based on allegations by the Commission's staff that ECS's Regulation A filing contained misleading statements and material omissions concerning a proposed merger between ECS and another corporation. The allegations focused on the basis upon which the exchange ratio for the proposed merger was determined, the occupancy rate of the properties owned by the other company, the price paid by ECS to an affiliate and others to purchase a controlling interest in the other company and a condition of the merger that if more than 15% of the other company's shareholders dissent, ECS has the option not to pursue the merger. If ECS does not request a hearing as permitted, the Commission's order will become permanent on the thirtieth day after its entry. (Rel. 33-6209)

NASD ACTION AGAINST LEONARD L. GOOCH AFFIRMED

The Commission has affirmed sanctions imposed by the NASD on Leonard L. Gooch of Santa Clara, California. The NASD censured Gooch, fined him $1,000, and suspended him for one year from association with any NASD member as a principal, with the proviso that he must requalify by examination before re-entering the securities industry in that capacity.

The Commission found, as had the NASD, that Gooch engaged in private securities transactions without giving his firm proper notification, and, in effecting such transactions, improperly engaged in business as an unregistered broker-dealer.

In affirming the NASD's sanctions, the Commission stated that Gooch's professed ignorance of applicable requirements did not excuse his serious failure to comply with the high standards required of those in the securities business. (Rel. 34-16751)

ROBERT BERKSON BARRED

The Commission has barred Robert Berkson of East Hills, New York, from association with any broker or dealer. After 18 months, Berkson may become so associated in a non-proprietary and non-supervisory capacity, upon an appropriate showing to the Commission of adequate supervision.

In 1976, Berkson was convicted of violations of antifraud provisions of the securities laws, mail fraud, transporting forged securities, and conspiracy to commit those offenses. That same year, he was also convicted, on his plea of guilty, of filing a false federal income tax return.

The Commission concluded that, since all of the misconduct that led to Berkson's convictions occurred nearly 10 years ago, it would affirm the qualified bar imposed on Berkson by an administrative law judge. (Rel. 34-16753)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

JOHN E. MARQUSEE AND SHELDON LUBITZ ENJOINED

The New York Regional Office announced that on April 24 a complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York seeking to enjoin John E. Marqusee of New York City and Sheldon Lubitz of East Meadow, New York, from further violations of the antifraud, reporting and foreign corrupt practices provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Commission's complaint alleged, among other things, that in 1976, 1977, 1978 and 1978, the defendants, officers of Atlantic Improvement Corporation, diverted $170,000, $1,500,000, $850,000 and $750,000, respectively, from Atlantic to a corporation owned by Marqusee and his family, Paddington Press Limited. In furtherance of this scheme, the complaint alleged that the defendants falsified the books and records of Atlantic. By falsifying the books and records, the diversion of Atlantic's funds was not discovered by Atlantic's outside auditors. All of Atlantic's funds were repaid, with interest, by Paddington in 1976, 1977 and 1978. As of the date of the complaint, however, an amount of the $750,000 diverted in 1979 has not been repaid.

Simultaneously with the filing of the Commission's complaint, Marqusee and Lubitz consented to the entry of final judgments of permanent injunction, without admitting or denying the allegations set forth in the complaint. In addition, the court has ordered Marqusee to use his best efforts to return to Atlantic the funds diverted in 1979. (SEC v. John E. Marqusee and Sheldon Lubitz, S.D.N.Y., 80 Civil 2289 [GLG]). (LR-9069)

ADDITION TO WEEKLY CALENDAR

A Commission representative will testify on Friday, May 16, before the Subcommittee on Securities of the Senate Committee on Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs regarding the Venture Capital Investment Act and three similar Bills. The hearing is scheduled to begin at 10:00 a.m. in Room 5302 of the Dirksen Senate Office Building.

COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST TELTRONICS SERVICES, INC., OTHERS

The New York Regional Office announced that on May 2 a complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York seeking injunctive and other equitable relief against the following defendants for violating the antifraud and reporting provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934: (1) Teltronics Services, Inc. (TSI), a New York corporation with its principal place of business in New York, New York; (2) Edward Beagan of Brooklyn, New York, the president of TSI and the chairman of its board of directors; (3) Randolph Piechocki of Forest Hills, New York, a vice-president of TSI; and (4) Robert Chanda of Plainfield, New Jersey, a TSI vice-president from November 1978 until March 1979 when he ceased to be associated with TSI.

The Commission's complaint alleged, among other things, that since August 1978, TSI failed to disclose, in various quarterly, annual and current reports required to be filed with the Commission, or otherwise, its seriously deteriorating financial condition. The Commission's complaint further alleged that TSI filed with the Commission a quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 1978 which was false and misleading and contained omissions and misstatements of material facts in that it overstated TSI's receivables by at least $500,000 and failed to disclose the serious fiscal difficulties being experienced by TSI. In addition, the complaint alleged that during the period from January 1, 1979 to the present, TSI failed to file with the Commission the required annual and quarterly reports. Finally, the complaint alleged that during January 1979, Chanda sold 2,400 shares of TSI common stock without disclosing material non-public information concerning TSI's precarious financial condition.

Simultaneously with the filing of the complaint, Chanda consented, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint, to the entry of a final judgment of permanent injunction and order directing him to disgorge the profits which resulted from his alleged violative conduct. (SEC v. Teltronics Services, Inc., et al., S.D.N.Y., 80 Civil 2472 RJW). (LR-9082)

STIPULATION AND FINAL ORDER ENTERED AGAINST CHESTER C. DAVIS

The Commission announced that on May 12 Judge Alfonse J. Zirpoli of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California issued a final order directing Chester C. Davis of New York City to comply with the antifraud provision of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. In its complaint the Commission alleged that Mr. Davis, in connection with the acquisition of the assets of Air West, Inc. by the late Howard Hughes, Jr., had engaged in a fraudulent course of conduct and violated the proxy solicitation rules. Davis stipulated to the entry of the order without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations. (SEC v. William R. Lummis, et al., As Administrators of the Estate of Howard R. Hughes, Jr., et al., U.S.D.C. N.D. Cal., Civil Action No. 75-0589 AJZ). (LR-9083)

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

DANIEL KING BRAINARD AND HALTON Q. BITTICK CONVICTED

The Atlanta Regional Office announced that on April 24, following a trial before the Honorable Eugene A. Gordon, U.S. District Judge for the Middle District of North Carolina, Daniel King Brainard was convicted on thirteen counts of mail fraud in connection with the offer and sale of securities, and Halton Q. Bittick was convicted on thirteen counts of mail fraud in connection with the offer and sale of securities and on one count of making a false statement in a report required to be filed with the Commission. The convictions arose out of transactions involving the sale of evidences of indebtedness of Sheldon S. Moss, doing business as Television Marketing and Correlated Equities Corporation.

In a related civil injunctive action, Brainard has consented to the entry of an order preliminarily enjoining him from violating and aiding and abetting violations of various provisions of the securities laws. Litigation in this matter is continuing. (U.S. v. Daniel King Brainard, M.D. North Carolina, Criminal Action No. 80-176). (LR-9081)

SHELDON L. HART ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on May 9 the Honorable Thomas A. Flannery, Jr., U.S. District Judge for the District of Columbia, entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Relief as to Sheldon L. Hart, the sole remaining defendant in the Commission's injunctive action charging Hart and four other defendants with violations of various provisions of the securities laws.

The Judgment enjoins Hart from violating the antifraud and reporting provisions of the securities laws, and from making misrepresentations to accountants in connection with the preparation of filings with the Commission, and also bars Hart from being a director or, under certain circumstances, an officer, of a public company, unless such company has and maintains an Audit Committee composed of unaffiliated directors with certain defined responsibilities with regard to company filings, disclosures, and accounting matters. The Judgment was entered pursuant to a settlement as to which Hart consented without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint. (SEC v. Sheldon L. Hart, et al., D.D.C., Civil Action No. 78-0065). (LR-9080)

The Commission announced the institution of public administrative proceedings against Charles E. Purdy III, a registered representative employed in the Minneapolis, Minnesota office of a registered broker-dealer. CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

FINAL JUDGMENT ISSUED AGAINST BOOKKEEPERS, LTD; TRUSTEE NAMED

The Los Angeles Regional Office announced that on May 7 U.S. District Judge Leland C. Nielsen of the Southern District of California, issued a final judgment against Bookkeepers, Ltd. of Ontario, California. Under the terms of the final judgment, the company is enjoined from violating the antifraud provisions of the securities laws and also enjoined from further violations of Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which requires the company to register its stock with the Commission. Judge Nielsen also appointed Mr. R. N. Gould of San Diego as trustee of the company to serve until further order of the court. The trustee is to manage the company, to cause its securities to be registered with the Commission and to restore the original public shareholders of the company to the ownership position they occupied prior to April, 1974, the date the company engaged in a series of transactions the Commission charged were fraudulent. Bookkeepers consented to the final judgment without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint.

In November 1979, final judgment was entered against Walter Wencke, barring him from further violations of the securities laws and ordered him to disgorge certain property obtained by him. The case remains pending against Joseph Margala and Jerry Whitley, with a trial scheduled to begin on May 20. (SEC v. Bookkeepers, Ltd., et al., S.D. Cal., CV 79-1715-N). (LR-9078)

OPPENHEIMER & COMPANY, INC. CENSURED

The Commission has censured Oppenheimer & Company, Inc., a New York City broker-dealer, for failing to comply with reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. In May 1974, Oppenheimer acquired more than 5% of the common stock of Medcom, Inc. However, it did not send the required report to Medcom or file it with the Commission within 10 days, as then required. Instead, the reports were not made until March 1975, some 10 months after Oppenheimer acquired the Medcom stock.

The Commission affirmed the administrative law judge's dismissal of charges that, in connection with its activities in Medcom stock, Oppenheimer violated the anti-manipulative provisions of Rule 10b-6 under the Exchange Act. (Rel. 34-16817)

CONSIDERATION OF A SYSTEM OF CLASSIFYING SMALLER ISSUERS FOR PURPOSES OF MODIFYING CERTAIN REPORTING AND OTHER REQUIREMENTS

The Commission has authorized the publication of a release which solicits comments on the feasibility of establishing certain defined classes of small issuers for purposes of modifying certain reporting and other obligations under the Exchange Act. In connection therewith, the Commission is releasing certain statistical data with respect to those companies that are subject to the Exchange Act pursuant to Sections 12 and 15(d) thereof, for the purpose of evaluating potential classification criteria. The release represents a further initiative by the Commission to identify and remove impediments to small business to the greatest extent consistent with the public interest and protection of investors and raises general questions about the desirability or feasibility of a classification system and the criteria which could be used in grouping companies. Comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before September 15 and should refer to File No. S7-837. All comments will be available for public inspection. (Rel. 34-16866)

WEEKLY CALENDAR

The following is a schedule of speaking engagements, Congressional testimony, Commission hearings and other public events involving the Commission for the week of June 8, 1980. (Commission Meetings are announced separately in the News Digest)

Tuesday, June 10

- Commissioner Stephen J. Friedman will address a luncheon meeting of the Securities Law Committee of the Federal Bar Association to be held at the National Lawyers Club, 1815 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. The topic of his speech will be "Some Early Reflections on the Administrative Process at the SEC -- the Relationship between Policymaking and Enforcement."

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

R. G. DICKINSON & CO., OTHERS SANCTIONED

The Commission announced that it has instituted public administrative proceedings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against R. G. Dickinson & Co., a Des Moines, Iowa based brokerage firm; John C. Stelzer of Perry, Iowa, a former Dickinson registered representative, John E. Waggoner, Dickinson's option department manager, John P. Boesel, Jr., Dickinson's president, William N. Goodwin, Dickinson's chairman of the board of directors, all of Des Moines, Iowa, Donald J. Renier, Dickinson's Des Moines office manager, and Ray D. Duve, Jr., Dickinson's first vice-president and treasurer, both of West Des Moines, Iowa. Simultaneously, the Commission accepted offers of settlement from the respondents.

In their offers of settlement, without admitting or denying the allegations or findings, the respondents consented to the entry of findings and an order: censuring Dickinson, suspending all options trading in Dickinson's Des Moines branch office for 60 days, and requiring Dickinson to comply with its undertaking to adopt new procedures, expand its option training programs, employ an independent person to review its compliance procedures, and make monetary adjustments in the accounts of certain customers by a minimum amount of $340,000 (Dickinson having already made adjustments in certain customers' accounts of $84,000); barring Stelzer from association with any broker, dealer, investment company, or investment adviser, or affiliate thereof; suspending Waggoner from association with any broker, dealer, investment company, or investment adviser, or affiliate thereof for 30 days, and suspending him from acting in a supervisory capacity with any of the foregoing entities for one year, and requiring him to be re-certified as a Registered Options Principal; suspending Renier from acting in a supervisory capacity with any broker, dealer, investment company, or investment adviser, or affiliate thereof for 60 days; suspending Boesel from acting in a supervisory capacity with any broker, dealer, investment company, or investment adviser, or affiliate thereof for 30 days; suspending Goodwin from acting in a supervisory capacity with any broker, dealer, investment company, or investment adviser, or affiliate thereof for 15 days; and suspending Duve from association with any broker, dealer, investment company, or investment adviser, or affiliate thereof for 15 days, and suspending him from serving in a supervisory capacity over the operations of any of the foregoing entities for a period of one year.

The sanctions imposed were based upon findings that Stelzer and Dickinson wilfully violated the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Exchange Act in connection with options trading in certain customer accounts; and that Waggoner, Renier, Boesel, and Goodwin failed reasonably to supervise with a view to preventing the foregoing violations. The Commission also found that Dickinson wilfully violated and Duve wilfully aided and abetted violations of the margin, net capital, safekeeping, recordkeeping, and financial reporting provisions of the Exchange Act, and that Duve had failed reasonably to supervise with a view to preventing the foregoing violations. (Rel. 34-16843)

COMPLAINT NAMES ALLEN F. LEGAL, OTHERS

The Commission announced that on May 21 a complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court, Southern District of Florida, Ft. Legel), Harry B. Braswell, John W. Roberts, Jr., Lawrence L. McGowan, Lawrence W. Legel (L. Legel), and Daniel J. Jones. In its complaint the Commission alleged that, among other things, A. Legel, Braswell, Roberts, McGowan, L. Legel, and Jones were all principals and/or control persons of Legel Braswell Government Securities Corp. (LBG), and Legel Braswell Securities Corp. (LBS). LBG was a broker-dealer effecting transactions in exempt government securities, including GNMA securities, which ceased doing business in January, 1979. LBS was a broker-dealer registered with the Commission which effected transactions in municipals, as well as other securities, and also ceased doing business in January, 1979. Both LBG and LBS were adjudicated bankrupt on June 6, 1979.

In was further alleged that the defendants violated the antifraud provisions of the securities laws and that the defendants aided and abetted violations of the Net Capital Rule.

The Commission requested that the Court enter an injunction to enjoin the defendants from further violations and the aiding and abetting of violations of the antifraud and financial responsibility provisions of the securities laws. (SEC v. Allen F. Legel, et al., S.D. Fla., Ft. Lauderdale, Civil Action No. 80-6248-CIV-EPS). (LR-9094)

COMMISSION INSTITUTES ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST R. JACK BERNHARDT, LOEB, RHOADES, HORNBLOWER & CO. AND TWELVE OTHERS; BERNHARDT AND SEVEN OTHERS ARE CHARGED IN A RELATED CIVIL INJUNCTIVE ACTION

The Commission announced that it has instituted public administrative proceedings against R. Jack Bernhardt, a registered representative with Loeb, Rhoades & Co., Inc. from November, 1974 until February 11, 1977, and a registered representative with Swift, Henke & Co. from February 14 until March 14, 1977, and against certain other respondents, including, Loeb, Rhoades, Hornblower & Co., successor firm to Loeb Rhoades, and certain former officers of Loeb Rhoades, and Swift Henke and its former president.

In a related matter, the Commission filed a civil injunctive action in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, seeking a permanent injunction against R. Jack Bernhardt and seven of his former customers.

In the Order Instituting Proceedings, Bernhardt is charged with violating the antifraud, antimanipulative, credit, beneficial ownership reporting, recordkeeping and net capital provisions of the securities laws. The Order alleges that, from in or about December, 1975, until on or about March 14, 1977, Bernhardt engaged in a scheme to manipulate, dominate and control the market price and supply of the securities of Olympia Brewing Company; Lawrys Foods, Inc.; Stange Co. and Fays Drug Company. It is charged that, as part of Bernhardt's scheme, he solicited purchases on the basis of assurances of takeovers, made unauthorized trades in the accounts of certain of his customers, and placed orders for the purpose of raising the prices of the securities, sustaining the prices he had established and absorbing shares of the securities being sold into the market. It is further charged that Bernhardt devised a check-exchange scheme involving certain customers in order to create the appearance of payments for purchases of securities, arranged illegal bank loans and loans from individuals for certain customers to purchase securities and caused his employer firms to file false Regulation T requests. It is also alleged that Bernhardt accumulated in the accounts of his customers more than 5 percent of the outstanding stock in each security for the purpose of acquiring, holding and disposing of the shares of each security as a block.

The Order Instituting Proceedings further charges that Bernhardt's employer, Loeb Rhoades, violated certain provisions of the securities laws, including the antifraud and credit provisions, and that certain officers of Loeb Rhoades failed reasonably to supervise persons subject to their supervision with a view to preventing those violations. It further charges that Swift Henke violated the credit, net capital and recordkeeping provisions of the securities laws and that Swift Henke and its president failed reasonably to supervise persons subject to their supervision with a view toward preventing those violations and preventing violations of the antifraud provisions.

Simultaneously with the issuance of the Order Instituting Proceedings, all respondents except Bernhardt submitted Offers of Settlement in which they consented to the issuance of the Commission's Findings and Order Imposing Remedial Sanctions without admitting or denying any of the allegations or findings. Accordingly, the Commission issued its Findings and Order against all of the respondents except Bernhardt, without factual findings and based solely upon the allegations of the Division of Enforcement and the consents of those respondents.

In the Commission's Findings and Order, the Commission found that Loeb Rhoades violated the credit and antifraud provisions of the securities laws, and ordered that Loeb Rhoades Hornblower is censured, and that it will place or cause to be placed $600,000 into an escrow fund for the payment of claims which may be established by certain claimants. ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION BY FIRST MULTIFUND FOR DAILY INCOME, INC. DENIED; PROCEEDINGS DISCONTINUED

The Commission has denied the application of First Multifund for Daily Income, Inc. (FMDI), a registered investment company, for an exemption from certain provisions of the Investment Company Act, and has ordered that the proceedings with respect to that application be discontinued. FMDI, a money market fund, had sought exemptions that would enable it to value its assets on an amortized cost basis.

After hearings on FMDI's application before an administrative law judge had been concluded, FMDI sold substantially all of its assets to another investment company in exchange for the buyer's stock, distributed that stock to its shareholders in redemption of their shares, and ceased operations. The law judge concluded that, under the circumstances, a ruling on FMDI's application would serve no useful purpose, and that continuation of the proceedings would be improvident. The Commission affirmed the law judge's rulings. (Rel. IC-11152)

RONDO J. ZIEGLER SANCTIONED

The Commission announced that it has determined to accept the offer of settlement submitted in connection with an administrative proceeding (In the Matter of Olde & Co., Inc., et al., instituted on January 30, 1980) by Rondo J. Ziegler, of St. Charles, Illinois, a registered representative of a registered broker-dealer. On the basis of the Order for Proceedings and the offer of settlement, the Commission found that Ziegler wilfully violated and wilfully aided and abetted violations of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Based on the above, the Commission censured Ziegler. Without admitting or denying the allegations made against him in the Order for Proceedings, Ziegler consented to the above findings and sanctions. ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

NYSE BAR OF PETER PAUL GLAGOLA AFFIRMED

The Commission has affirmed action by the New York Stock Exchange barring Peter Paul Glagola, of Anaheim, California, from employment in any capacity with a member or member organization.

The Commission found, as had the Exchange, that Glagola had wrongfully inserted his name as payee on his customers' check, commingled the customers' funds with those of his wife, and converted the funds to his own use. In concluding that no reduction in sanction was warranted, the Commission stated that Glagola "had demonstrated a callous disregard for the most basic tenets of 'just and equitable principles of trade.'" (Rel. 34-16821)

COMPLAINT NAMES R. JACK BERNHARDT, OTHERS

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on May 22, in an action related to the Commission's public administrative proceeding announced on the same date, a complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division, against R. Jack Bernhardt, a registered representative with Loeb, Rhoades & Co., Inc. from November, 1974, until February 11, 1977, and a registered representative with Swift, Henke & Co. from February 14 until March 14, 1977, and against seven former customers of Bernhardt.

The complaint charges that Bernhardt violated the antifraud, antimanipulative, credit and beneficial ownership reporting provisions of the securities laws while engaged in a scheme to manipulate, dominate and control the market in the securities of Olympia Brewing Company, Stange Co., Lawrys Foods, Inc. and Fays Drug Company. The complaint further charges that Thomas P. Danis, a former bank vice-president and loan officer who was also a customer of Bernhardt's, aided and abetted Bernhardt's antifraud violations, violated the beneficial ownership reporting provisions and violated certain credit provisions by arranging illegal bank loans for customers of Bernhardt's to purchase securities.

The complaint also alleges that Turnkey Enterprises, Andrew C. Papas, A. Patrick Papas, John R. Powell, Richard M. Shure and Paul B. Smithson, all former customers of Bernhardt's, violated the credit and beneficial ownership reporting provisions of the securities laws by, among other things, giving insufficient funds checks to broker-dealers for the purchase of securities, obtaining bank loans to purchase securities in violation of the credit provisions and failing to report on Schedule 13D certain of their holdings of the shares of these securities.

Simultaneously with the filing of the Commission's complaint, Danis, Turnkey, Andrew Papas and Patrick Papas, without admitting or denying any of the allegations in the complaint, consented to the entry of a final judgment of permanent injunction. (SEC v. R. Jack Bernhardt, et al., U.S.D.C. N.D. Ill., Civil Action No. 80C 2578). (LR-9091)

9237

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO RULES 242 AND 252

The Commission is proposing for public comment amendments to Rule 242 and to Rule 252 of Regulation A. Rule 242 and Regulation A provide limited offering exemptions from registration under Section 3(b) of the Securities Act of 1933. If a disqualification exists under Rule 242 or Rule 252, no Rule 242 or Regulation A exemption will be available, unless the Commission grants relief from the disqualification upon application by an aggrieved person. The proposed amendments would make disqualifications which now last indefinitely terminate automatically after a specified period of time. They also would modify the list of disqualifications and the persons to whom the disqualifications apply.

All comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol St., Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before August 30, 1980, and should refer to File No. S7-840. All comments will be available for public inspection. (Rel. 33-6214)

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Gail Gordon Alkire at (202) 272-2644.

FIRST LIBERTY CORPORATION

The Atlant Regional Office and the Miami Branch Office announced that First Liberty Corporation anticipates returning approximately 90% of its on-hand liquid assets, or $957,000, to its creditors and shareholders. The second and final distribution of assets will take place after all taxes, fees, and expenses have been paid.

On August 17, 1977, the Commission filed a complaint in the U.S. District Court, Middle District of Florida, against First Liberty, and others, seeking an injunction and an order of disgorgement. The defendants consented, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint. On January 12, 1978, the court entered an Order of Disgorgement which provided that First Liberty should return, pursuant to a plan approved by the court, more than $1.2 million of the proceeds of the public sale of its common stock relating to a "minimum-maximum" public offering, which was the subject of the complaint.

On September 5, 1979, the judge signed an Order approving the sale of First Liberty Investors Life Insurance Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of First Liberty, and a Plan of Distribution of the assets of First Liberty. (SEC v. First Liberty Corporation, et al., M.D. Fla., Civil Action No. 77-623-CIV-TH). (LR-9099)

Marmon, the remaining defendants in SEC v. Digital Switch Corporation, et al. The judgments permanently enjoin Hagerty and Marmon from violating the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The complaint had alleged violation of these provisions by Hagerty, Marmon and Digital Switch in connection with the offer and sale of Digital Switch's securities. Marmon and Hagerty consented to the entry of the injunctions without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint, which the Commission filed on April 4, 1980.

As the Commission and Digital Switch had previously entered into a settlement, this action is now terminated as to all defendants. (SEC v. Digital Switch Corporation, et al., E.D. Va., Civil Action No. 80-0296-A). (LR-9100)

STATEMENT OF MANAGEMENT ON INTERNAL ACCOUNTING CONTROL

The Commission announces the publication of a release withdrawing rule proposals which, if adopted, would have required inclusion of a statement of management on internal accounting control in annual reports on Form 10-K filed with the Commission under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and in annual reports to security holders furnished pursuant to the proxy rules. The rule proposals would also have required that the management statement be examined and reported on by an independent accountant.

The Commission intends to give further consideration to the publication of rule proposals concerning management reports, and auditor association with them, based upon three years' experience with a monitoring program which the Commission intends to continue through the spring of 1982. As part of that program, the Commission will monitor carefully private-sector initiatives in this area, as well as issuer practice in voluntarily providing management statements on internal accounting control and in engaging independent accountants to report on such statements. In this connection, the Commission is again inviting public comment on, among other things, both the progress being made by the private sector, as well as what regulatory action the Commission might consider in this area. ADOPTION OF RULE 19c-3 AND
WITHDRAWAL OF RULE 19c-2

The Commission today announced the adoption of Rule 19c-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the withdrawal of Rule 19c-2 under that Act. Rule 19c-3 will preclude the application of off-board trading restrictions to certain equity securities which were not exchange traded on April 26, 1979, or which were exchange traded on April 26, 1979, but failed to remain continuously exchange traded thereafter. The rule will become effective 30 days after publication of the release announcing the Commission's action in the Federal Register. Rule 19c-2, proposed in June 1977, would have eliminated remaining off-board trading restrictions with respect to most exchange traded securities. (Rel. 34-16888 and 34-16889)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

SANCTIONS IMPOSED AGAINST DENISE L. STINE

The Commission announced it has, pursuant to an Offer of Settlement submitted by Denise L. Stine of Albuquerque, New Mexico in which she neither admitted nor denied the allegations contained in the Order for Proceedings and in which she consented to findings of violations and sanctions, entered Findings and Order Imposing Remedial Sanctions.

The Commission ordered that the respondent be barred from acting as a principal, officer, director, owner or back office employee of a broker or dealer or in any other capacity with a broker or dealer other than as a supervised employee in a non-supervisory capacity; and be suspended from associating with a broker or dealer for a period of 30 days, and that after the expiration of the 30 days, she may only be associated as a supervised employee in a non-supervisory capacity, with the further provision that, after the 30 day period, she submit an affidavit stating she has complied with the sanction, and that an appropriate affidavit be submitted in the event she becomes associated with a broker or dealer. (Rel. 34-16864)

COLUMBIA MANAGEMENT COMPANY CITED

Public administrative proceedings have been ordered against Columbia Management Company (CMC) of Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania. The proceedings are based upon the staff's allegations that CMC violated Section 13(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 12b-20, 13a-1 and 13a-13 promulgated thereunder by failing to disclose in the annual reports on Form 10-K and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q filed with the Commission for the years 1971 to 1974 that the unearned premium reserve of its accident and health insurance subsidiary was understated by approximately $150,000, and that falsified computer reports were employed to disguise this understatement; and by failing to disclose in the annual report on Form 10-K and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q filed with the Commission for the year 1975 that the $150,000 understatement was corrected improperly thereby causing a material overstatement of CMC's net loss for that year.

Simultaneously with the institution of proceedings, the Commission accepted an offer of settlement submitted by CMC. Based upon that offer of settlement in which CMC neither admitted nor denied the allegations made against it in the Order for Proceedings, the Commission found that CMC violated Section 13(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 12b-20, 13a-1 and 13a-13 promulgated thereunder. CMC was ordered to file with the Commission a copy of the Order Instituting Proceedings and Findings and Order of the Commission on Form 8-K and mail it to any shareholder on request. In addition, CMC was ordered to reflect the proper accounting treatment for the restoration of $150,000 to the unearned premium reserve of its accidental and health subsidiary for the fiscal year 1975 in the Form 10-K to be filed for the year ending December 31, 1979. Furthermore, CMC was ordered to comply with its undertakings to maintain certain detailed corporate policies relating to the integrity of its data processing systems and business travel and entertainment expenses; to institute procedures to secure compliance with these policies and provide for periodic review of such compliance by the Audit Committe of its Board of Directors; and to fill positions at CMC as they become vacant or are created with persons sensitive to the importance of internal financial controls and who will contribute to the implementation of these corporate policies.
